

THE Publishers' Weekly
THE AMERICAN
BOOK TRADE JOURNAL

WITH WHICH IS INCORPORATED

The American Literary Gazette and Publishers' Circular.

[ESTABLISHED 1852.]

PUBLICATION OFFICE, 298 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

Entered at the Post-Office at New York, N. Y., as second-class matter.

VOL. LXXVI, No. 26. NEW YORK, Dec. 25, 1909 WHOLE No. 1978

Adolf Growoll

Born

JUNE 19, 1850

Died

DECEMBER 7, 1909

The Profession of Bookselling

A Handbook of Practical Hints for the Apprentice and Bookseller

By A. GROWOLL

Late Managing Editor of "The Publishers' Weekly"

In 3 parts. Parts 1 and 2, 8vo, each, boards, $2.00

(A Concluding Part in Preparation)

The first part contains chapters on "Preparatory Training;" "Entering the Profession;" "Bibliography of Literature;" "Supplementary Reading;" "In the Store;" "Trade Catalogues," etc., comprising the matter contained in "A Bookseller's Library," which has gone out of print, and will not be issued again; "Arrangement and Care of Stock;" "Stock Books;" "Classification;" "Tables;" "Bulletin Boards;" "Dusting;" "Window-Dressing;" "Advertising;" "Learning Stock;" "Buying Stock;" "The Order Department;" and "Delivery and Shipping Department." A reasonably full index is added to the part.

"The young bookseller can learn more by a thorough perusal of this book than he could through many years of active experience."—C. N. CASFAR.

The second part contains chapters on "Insurance;" "Moving and 'Taking Stock';" "How to Keep a Stock of Music;" "The Care and Arrangement of Paper-bound Stock Issued in Series;" "Newspapers, Magazines, and Books Issued in Parts;" "The Circulating Library," including a representative list of fiction, charging system, etc., and "Bookbinding," from a practical and historical point of view, with 15 full page plates. This part is also fully indexed.

The third part, which it is hoped to prepare from ample material left by Mr. Growoll, was planned by him to contain chapters on the antiquarian book trade; salesmen—in the store and on the road; subscription bookselling; bookkeeping; stationers' supplies, etc.

Office of THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY

298 BROADWAY, NEW YORK

A. Frowell

The Publishers' Weekly.

FOUNDED BY F. LEYPOLDT.

DECEMBER 25, 1909.

"I hold every man a debtor to his profession, from the which, as men do of course seek to receive countenance and profit, so ought they of duty to endeavor themselves by way of amends to be a help and an ornament thereunto."—LORD BACON.

ADOLF GROWOLL.

HONOR to a man who bore himself bravely, who did his work well, who left a memory to respect and love!

Adolf Growoll came of solid German stock, his father, John Growoll, and his mother, who was Louise Weber, both of Rechenburg in the Fatherland, having come to America after the revolutionary days of 1848, with other voluntary exiles who found in America the freer land which they had failed to make of the home country. The East Side of New York was then occupied largely by this German colony, and here, on Third Street, between Avenues A and B, opposite the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer, their son Adolf was born June 19, 1850. As a lad he made instinctive choice of his future calling, for when but eight years old he spent his Saturdays and other hours out of school at Schroeder's bookstore on Avenue A, helping tend counter and run errands, a precocious prophecy of his later association with the booktrade. Fifty years later this early incident gave occasion for the celebration of a half-century of connection with the bookselling trade.

One of Mr. Growoll's reminiscences was a gruesome incident of his early boyhood, for he actually saw "John Brown's body lying in the grave"—more accurately in his coffin—on the way to the final sepulchre at North Elba, where the great boulder is his monument. A schoolmate was the son of the undertaker who had charge of John Brown's remains while on their way from the scene of the execution to the Adirondack country which was his home, and the lad took Adolf with him to his father's shop, where he saw the venerable body in its coffin. This was in 1859, when the boy was nine years old, and it is no wonder that the incident made a lasting impression. He was, of course, too young to go to the war, but its patriotic influence was not lost upon him as a citizen.

Young Growoll remained at school until fourteen, living successively at Seventh Street and Avenue A, in Avenue A at Fourth Street, and later, until his marriage, at the house which his father had purchased at 61 Rivington Street, just back of the present University Settlement House. At fourteen he left school and took to work, finding his first occupation in the clothing house of White & Longstreet. One sad day, while he was on the top story of their building, he fell by mischance into the elevator shaft, fracturing his skull, and was taken to the New York Hospital, then in the midst of the stretch of green on Broadway opposite Thomas (now upper Pearl) Street, near which locality his later years were largely spent. For seven weary months he lay in hospital, and for a year and a half in all he was incapacitated from work. But his constitution carried him through, though in later life he suffered from severe headaches and other distresses, which were probably aftermath of this early accident. On his recovery he found a place in Sackett's perfume and barber supply business, where he did so well in keeping the stock in order, and afterward in collecting bills, that he attracted the favorable notice of others, and before he was eighteen became a collector on his own account for this business and others. He became the proud possessor of a horse and buggy, in which he made collecting tours about New York, especially in the upper part of the island, and in this business he made as much as $75 in a single week. The temptations of the road-houses, which were then many in the country part of Manhattan Island, did not entice him, but his father felt that this roving and irresponsible occupation was no solid foundation for success, and gave Adolf his choice of a trade. He chose printing, and it is interesting to note that this became a calling for the family, as a sister and other relatives also became expert in that trade.

The young man went to the case in Schwank's printing establishment, which was then doing the work of the Army and Navy Journal, established by Colonel Church. The youthful printer proved a handy man about the place, and showed his editorial bent by picking out bits of German army news to fill out the shortage of a column, and by like clever helpfulness. This dexterity, physical and mental, brought him to the favorable attention of Colonel Church. The printing office later became that of Waldron & Paine, and printed not only the Army and Navy Journal but the Galaxy, for Colonel Church, and the Baptist Union, apparently a Free Will Baptist paper. Young Growoll became foreman of the Baptist Union composing room, and here he met Miss Esther Entwistle, a skilled woman compositor working at case there, who became his wife, October 31, 1876. The young couple, still loyal to the East Side, set up housekeeping at Fifth Street and Avenue A, but a year or two afterward joined in the upward march, which left the German East Side to be populated by the later races of immigrants. Not long after the marriage, the Baptist Union went out of existence, as the result of dissensions within its proprietorship, and the young husband was thrown upon his own resources. For the good part of a year he turned to any work upon which he could lay hand, and at last found a place in the Rogers & Sherwood printing establishment, then printing THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY for Mr. Leypoldt.

If we recall rightly, Adolf Growoll, now twenty-seven, had previously attracted the favorable notice of Frederick Leypoldt, as a boy after his own heart, when he was with Waldron & Paine, then, we believe, at 37 Park Row, where THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY also had its office. In 1877 he was the intermediary between the Rogers & Sherwood plant and THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY editorial rooms; when he brought proof he watched the editor at work, and evidently took an intelligent interest in the routine of the editorial rooms. Mr. Leypoldt was so pleased with the alert and attentive make-up of the young man that he offered him a place in his own office, and he came to the service of THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY on June 19, 1877, his first work being to help Mr. Leypoldt in the preparation of the Educational Catalogue of that year, for which his accuracy proved his entire fitness. This was the start of both his editorial and his bibliographical career.

From that day until the day of his death, his associations were exclusively with THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY, his associates in its office, and the friends of the booktrade, with whom it brought him into touch, and its record and personnel are a part of his biography. Accordingly we print elsewhere in this memorial number an account of his associates and associations in this office.

Under the change of administration in 1884, Mr. Growoll continued to develop in importance in his relations with the WEEKLY until he became its Managing Editor, and took a large share of the responsibility for its conduct. In these later years, although such legal and fiscal subjects as copyright, trade reform, and trade discounts have been handled from the desk of the editor-in-chief, Mr. Growoll has contributed a large share of the editorial articles in THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY, especially those relating to management within the trade, and out of these articles has come his most valuable contribution to the trade, his work on "The Profession of Bookselling." He had been constantly urged by his associates to complete this work as a service to the trade and a monument to himself, by the issue of a third and concluding part, but for this he had never found time. Most of the writing for this concluding part, on the antiquarian bookstore and other topics, had, however, already been done in the editorial columns, and his associates hope within the coming year to complete the volume from this material. The title of this work gives in a phrase Mr. Growoll's sense of the high calling to which he had devoted himself as an editor, and he did his work always in the spirit of the excerpt from Lord Bacon which Frederick Leypoldt years ago put at the head of the editorial columns of THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY. He counted himself a debtor to his profession, and the profession of bookselling has generously acknowledged its indebtedness to him.

Of his other bibliographical and biographical writings a bibliography is given elsewhere in this memorial number. Bibliography became his recreation, although in the same line of toil with his daily work and thus not a diversion from it, and his several volumes in this field have given him a high place among American bibliographers and helped set a high standard for American bibliography. He liked to do justice to those who had gone before, and his memorials, separately published or found in the obituary columns of THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY, were models of careful detail and wholesome appreciation. No one was better acquainted than he with the personnel, living or dead, of the American booktrade.

His helpful work for the booktrade, however, was not wholly confined to THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY, great as was his service through its columns. He took an active part as a personal counsellor in many trade movements, and after the reorganization of the American Booksellers' Association was a chief adviser in its councils. The appreciation of his fellows in this association was shown in May, 1908, by the presentation of a gold watch and of a volume containing many letters of respect and affection, which are in part reproduced elsewhere. He was one of the organizers of the Booksellers' League of New York City, served it as its president, and was from its beginning an inspiring leader. His history of the first ten years of "The Booksellers' League" is one of his most appreciated publications. He was an early member of the New York Library Club, and had contributed some articles with his signature and much bibliographical material to the columns of The Library Journal, and many librarians as well as members of the booktrade were counted among his personal friends.

His early experience as a printer stood him in good stead throughout his life, and his skill as bibliographer and printer were united in the publications under the imprint of The Dibdin Press, which represented the interest of a little group of those close to him. The actual typesetting was done in the home of a friend, under his supervision, by his niece, Miss Minnie Greenhalgh, whom he had practically adopted as a daughter, giving to her scarcely less care and affection than to his beloved own daughter, and the presswork was done by his friend, Andrew H. Kellogg.

Happily he had recreative opportunities outside the office and his every day work, and in 1888 and in 1894 he spent some time in Europe. Later he enjoyed a winter vacation in Bermuda, and in 1901, with his wife and daughter, he spent much of the summer in Europe, on a silver wedding journey. He used to tell with great pleasure of an incident at Rome during that trip, when, on presenting his card to an Italian bookseller, the latter at once produced a copy of THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY in recognition. During these years he had several illnesses, some of length, and last spring he seemed to himself and to his associates aged beyond his years. He spent his vacation, however, among the inspiring influences of the White Mountains, at Jackson, New Hampshire, and after a rest-cure there and a visit with friends on the Massachusetts coast, he reported that he had not felt so well in years, and he carried through the difficult work of THE CHRISTMAS BOOKSHELF with less weariness and strain than for many years.

On Saturday morning, November 27, after the Christmas number had been issued, he was crossing from City Hall Park on his way to the office when he slipped and fell, evidently because of a careless bit of peel on the sidewalk. The knee-cap was fractured by the fall, and some ligaments torn, and he was taken in an ambulance to the House of Relief in Hudson Street, the emergency branch of the New York Hospital in which he had been a patient sufferer so many years before. He had little pain, and was entirely cheerful and hopeful, and on Sunday noon submitted to an operation under ether for the setting of the bone and the joining of the ligaments, apparently with good results. He preferred to remain in the large ward, where, as he said, he could occupy his mind with the study of human nature, but at the solicitation of his associates he permitted himself to be moved to a private room early in the week. Meantime, it had become evident that the general conditions of his system were not favorable to recovery from the accident, but it was thought unwise to lessen his chances by disclosing this to him, and he remained cheerful and in expectation of returning home, setting for himself the very day on which the last goodbye was said to him at Woodlawn. Except as he dropped into sleep or a comatose condition, his mind remained perfectly clear, and he recognized the few friends who were permitted to call upon him so late as the morning of his death. But at three o'clock of Tuesday, December 7, he lost consciousness, and he passed quietly away that evening, about eight o'clock, his family and some of his closest associates being with him until the end. Without physical pain, without mental depression, and with free spirit, he passed from earth.

ADOLF GROWOLL

AT 16

The record of the life of Adolf Growoll is written in his work and in the hearts of his friends better than it can be in any memorial such as this. To his character, the high and intimate praise of his friends bears best witness. Of somewhat gruff manner at times, so that his pet-name in the office was a little pun on his own surname, this scarcely concealed, even for a moment, the real heartiness of his nature. He was loyal to the utmost throughout a large and ever-widening circle of friends, and his helping hand and sympathetic word were always at the service of those who needed it. What he accomplished through frugality and careful living was an example to easy spenders, for, despite the large patronage of THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY, the necessary cost of editorial preparation, and even more of manufacture, has kept the margin of profit small; and the profit-sharing in which he was a participant did not suffice to give him an income at all adequate to his work and his needs. But of what he had, he made the most, and no man ever accomplished more, if so much, helping his relatives and friends freely as he did, with so little. This illustrates the real solidity with which his character and his life were built. There was no sham or assumption about him, and he hated sham and assumption in others. He rang true. He wrote and preached truth. He exemplified friendship. The world was the better for him, and in his loss the world, and chiefly his friends, are the poorer.

The kindness of the nurses and others to Mr. Growoll and his family and associates during the last days at the House of Relief in Hudson Street reflected the respect and cheerfulness which he showed as a patient there. They were not sad days, except in the forebodings of those who loved him.

This feeling of cheerfulness in sorrow, rather than the gloom of loss, pervaded the funeral services, which were held on Friday evening, December 10, at the Park Avenue Methodist Church, at Eighty-sixth Street. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity, associated with Chancellor Walworth Lodge, No. 271, F. and A. M., and the service was conducted with Masonic rites, in the presence of a great number of his associates among publishers and booksellers, and of other friends. The church services consisted of prayer and Scripture reading by Rev. De Witt B. Thompson, pastor of the church, after which a large wreath of laurel from the woods at Glendale, Stockbridge, in the Berkshires, where Mr. Growoll had been a welcomed visitor, was brought to the bier by Mr. R. R. Bowker, who spoke a last word of farewell from his associates, substantially as follows:

"I bring to the bier of our dead friend—our dear friend, dead to our eyes but living to our hearts—this wreath of laurel from the woods he loved, for the laurel typifies and crowns achievement accomplished and duty done. A great preacher has said that the chief purposes and achievements of human life are character and service. Our friend achieved character, guarded perhaps as a chestnut burr guards its treasures, and like it opening at the touch of friendship to disclose the rich, sweet, wholesome fruitage at the heart of it. A beloved comrade, a sympathetic co-worker, a steadfast friend—he realized throughout life the vital principle of religion, the true spirit of Masonry, in loving service to his fellow-men. Born in New York, Adolf Growoll loved New York as a citizen should love the city of his birth; he became a student of her history, and loved her the more. He found his calling with early prescience when, as a very little boy of eight, outside school hours, he tended shop at a neighborhood bookstore, a bookseller in miniature edition. It was only last year that, though he was not yet sixty years of age, his friends celebrated the half-century of his association with the booktrade. He came first to his real work in life through his apprenticeship to 'the art preservative of all arts,' and here he met his lifelong companion, the beloved partner of his trials and his joys. It has been well said that for each man there should be vocation and avocation—avocation the business by which a man earns his bread, vocation the high calling to which his spirit leads him. Happy the man who finds, as did our friend, his vocation and avocation together in his chosen profession. No man ever realized more to the full the saying of Lord Bacon that every man is a debtor to his profession, and in turn the profession of bookselling acknowledged itself debtor to him.

Finis. The end has come. The book is closed,

All its fair pages read into the past.

Nay—yet in lines of light its thoughts imposed

Are in the book of memory bound fast.

Finis. The end has come. The life is sleeping,

All its full years dreamed into the dead past.

Nay—yet the quick soul lives, in our hearts' keeping,

And in the book of life no page is last.

"Hail and farewell, dear friend, as we say the last good-bye, the God be with you, the prayer that the eternal Good may abide, with you and with us, forever. Amen."

The interment was at Woodlawn on the succeeding morning, when the sun shone brightly in a cloudless sky and gave symbol of consolation to those mourning, but in joyous memory.

ADOLF GROWOLL

AT 32

A. G.

We say that it is ended, Noble Heart,
 And yet we know
 It is not from thy spirit that we part
 When thou must go
 To those dim worlds of beauty far away!
 The flame that burned within thee shineth still,
 To give us light!
 We feel thy faith, the fervor of thy will,
 Thy love of right,
 Thy sweet companionship of every day!

And when our call shall come, the shadowed path
 Will seem less drear
 In that the brightness of thy spirit hath
 Since made it dear
 To us who knew, and knowing, loved thee here!

MABEL RAINSFORD HAINES.

SOME MEMORIES.

WHEN a child of seven I was adopted into the family of my uncle, F. W. Christern, at that time the foreign bookseller of the United States. When Frederick Leyppoldt, the founder of THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY, came to America to stay (1857) he found his place open for him with F. W. Christern, and in the manner of those days he was taken into Mr. Christern's home to board, as part of his wages. One of his duties was to stop on his way home to luncheon and escort my sister and me from Miss Green's school, No. 1 Fifth Avenue, to our dwelling, 123 West Thirteenth Street. This mercurial German enthusiast was different from everything the little "queer" girl of seven had ever seen or imagined. We lived in a "bromide" household, and from the first glance we knew we were kindred spirits in judging our surroundings. The foreign young man made a great pet of his little American comrade, and strove hard to learn English quickly by her loquacious and critical help.

In THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY for April 5, 1884, are given the details of Frederick Leyppoldt's life. In 1867 he married the little "queer" girl, having waited just long enough for her to grow up (within two months of eighteen, quite usual in those days). From that hour dates my association with every bibliographical, literary and trade interest of the publishing and book business of the United States.

Mr. Leyppoldt thought his plans aloud to his wife, and she was anything but the restraining influence prudence counselled. Her one thought was to give him the freedom he needed, to carry on the household by teaching and all kinds of work, so that he could have every dollar for his life's dreams. The Leyppoldt home was always a second workshop, and many good housewives looked in amazement at tables strewn with papers and the makings of catalogues, at bare floors and many needs, while several members of THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY staff worked week after week in Mr. Leyppoldt's home, and his wife made paste for the work and dinners for the helpers, and learned to love them all and recognize their devotion to their leader. By this time Mr. Leyppoldt spoke English more easily than his native German, and his editorial work shows a peculiar gift of style.

In 1877 Mr. Growoll came permanently as help to THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY office. He had also already appeared at the home several times in the many capacities in which he always was ready to get near Mr. Leyppoldt, whom he from the first so enthusiastically admired and to whom Mr. Growoll's qualities of German order, attention to detail and genius for work made him a congenial spirit. While working together for six years they became the closest of friends. On his death-bed Mr. Leyppoldt left his family in Mr. Growoll's care, and Mr. Growoll fulfilled the trust sometimes at great sacrifice of time and business opportunities.

Realizing that overwork had brought Mr. Leyppoldt into dangerous physical and mental condition, I planned to learn his business and support my children. In 1883 I came to THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY office as very raw material. Mr. Growoll showed all his fair, unselfish generosity in teaching me the business, and upon Mr. Leyppoldt's death together with Mr. Bowker made the place for me that I have filled for twenty-five years. Side by side we worked. I taught him what he needed most—the English language; and he taught me every detail from writing wrappers to doing his work in his absence.

Here again my inborn ambition helped me to urge Mr. Growoll on and make him aware of the qualities in him as yet not made potent by education. He was a rare pupil. So quick to appreciate his weakness, so quick to surpass his teacher.

He loved the work, but greatly for the sake of helping Mr. Leyppoldt's family he stayed by it when he was offered far better things financially.

Although born in New York City, it was in a wholly German district, and learning German first, Mr. Growoll always spoke English with a slight German accent, although of later years the English was wholly familiar to him, and he thought in English and wrote a terse, concentrated style wholly his own.

Both Mr. Leyboldt and Mr. Growoll spoke a dialect of Southern Germany, but besides acquiring the English language they learned to speak and write wholly correct academic German by constant practice in long discussions generally related to the booktrade and their hopes and fears for it.

Mr. Growoll was entirely happy in his work for THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY. Mr. Bowker, always to the front in many business and civic interests, early recognized the calibre of his editorial assistant, generously acknowledged his capacity and gave him the room for his individuality to develop and make a recognized place for him in the book world. This freedom was more to Mr. Growoll than great worldly riches.

To have lived in daily comradeship with two such men as Frederick Leyboldt and Adolf Growoll from 1857 to 1909 I count among the great privileges of my life, and I take no small pride in having faithfully, critically and exactly taught them both the medium in which they spoke such hopeful, cheering, useful things to their fellow-men.

Both men had the rare humor that makes the whole world kin, and of both the greatest characteristic, beyond all their knowledge, education and untiring study was—kindliness. They were the life of every gathering, and no one ever met or parted from either of them without a smile, more often a hearty laugh. They both embodied fun and healthy pleasure.

A. H. LEYPOLDT.

ADOLF GROWOLL—1850-1909.

Dead? Art thou really gone, true-hearted friend

And boon companion? Hast thou passed the portal

We all must pass, when we slough off this mortal?

Can be thy life so soon has reached its end?
Life filled with work well done—thy faithfulness

To all that makes for good of fellow-man,
Thy sage advice in counsel, skill to plan,
Thy world of cheer in time of storm and stress

Abide. Nor are these all thy rich bequest—Thy love for truth, thy honest hate of wrong,

Thy loyalty to friends, thy manhood strong—

These hold we dear now thou hast gone to rest.
Perchance thou hearest, from this our lower plain,

Our parting words: "Gluck auf! Auf wiedersehn!"

CHARLES ALEXANDER NELSON.

ASSOCIATES AND ASSOCIATIONS IN THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY OFFICE.

THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY with this number closes its seventy-sixth volume and its thirty-eighth year, or, including the life of Mr. George W. Childs's American Publishers' Circular and Literary Gazette, of which it is the continuation, the fifty-eighth year of its existence. During thirty-three of these years Adolf Growoll has been closely associated with it, as a member of its editorial staff. Frederick Leyboldt had left the firm of Leyboldt & Holt in 1871, to devote himself to his predestined calling as the bibliographer of the American booktrade. In 1872, from his office at 712 Broadway, he issued the first two volumes of this periodical, under the name of The Publishers' and Stationers' Weekly Trade Circular, which name was changed, at the beginning of the second year, to that of THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY, which it has ever since borne. Miss Marian M. Monachesi had been in charge of the circulating library connected with Mr. Leyboldt's bookstore in Philadelphia, and in 1873 she resumed service with him in New York, helping him on his accounts and in writing notices of books, and for thirty-six years remained the senior of the office staff. Mr. William A. Stewart, who as a boy had been a neighbor of the Garigues previous to Mr. Leyboldt's marriage with Miss Augusta Garigue in 1867, came into Mr. Leyboldt's employ as bookkeeper November 30, 1874, and later succeeded Miss Monachesi's brother in charge of the advertising department, in the relation which he still maintains. Mrs. Augusta H. Leyboldt came into practical touch with the office in 1883, when the consequences of over-work and over-worry which had resulted from her husband's devotion to his chosen calling had begun to presage his too early death, on March 31, 1884. These early and lifelong associations made of THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY staff a family of close intimacy, and the circle was not broken until this year 1909, when the death of Miss Monachesi preceded that of Mr. Growoll. For many years past a round table in a German restaurant not far from the office had been reserved, each business day, for this little family at luncheon time, and many friends and visitors have enjoyed the hospitality and good fellowship of the noonday hour at this place.

The present writer had become acquainted with Frederick Leyboldt as a publisher forty years ago, while literary editor of the Evening Mail, and did his first work for Mr. Leypoldt in the review of "Literature in America in 1871," which formed a feature of the Trade Circular Annual of 1872, the precursor of the Publishers' Trade List Annual. Later, while connected with the literary staff of the New York Tribune, he contributed to THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY columns, and had a desk in its editorial rooms. The relations with Mr. Leypoldt became closer and closer, until in 1879, to relieve Mr. Leypoldt from the embarrassment of the financial load which the great undertaking of the "American Catalogue" had brought upon him, he became the proprietor of THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY, with the proviso and expectation that Mr. Leypoldt would repurchase the paper after the "American Catalogue" of 1876 freed him again. Mr. Leypoldt resumed charge of THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY in July, 1880, when the present writer went abroad as the representative of Harper & Brothers, and retained control until his death in 1884, when the present proprietor resumed the relations which have lasted until now.

Miss Helen E. Haines, who came into the office in 1892 as a stenographer and earned her way to the post of Managing Editor of the Library Journal, took her place in the friendly intimacy of the editorial family, which Miss Mabel R. Haines has retained since she, in 1908, took up her sister's work. It was at the suggestion of Mr. Growoll that, in 1904, Mr. John A. Holden became Business Manager in succession to William J. Bell, after the unhappy accident which ultimately caused Mr. Bell's death. All these remained close personal friends with Mr. Growoll to the end, and although the junior staff had been entirely changed, by death or otherwise, this present year, as has been said, witnessed the first break in the chain of the elders. His juniors in the office came to regard Mr. Growoll with a respect and affection only second to the love of his contemporaries.

During these years his closest associate has been Mrs. Augusta H. Leypoldt, who has been not only his most intimate friend, especially in hours of illness and trial, but his alter ego, in taking upon herself, in addition to her own work as bibliographical editor, his desk work in times of illness or vacation absence.

The office of THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY had been removed in 1873 from 712 Broadway to 37 Park Row, in the old World building, where Mr. Growoll first knew it and where The Library Journal first saw the light. In 1879 it removed to 13-15 Park Row, and in 1882 to 31-32 Park Row, where it remained until after Mr. Leypoldt's death. In 1887 the office was removed to Franklin Square, at 330 Pearl Street, and with it The Library Journal and The Publishers' Trade List Annual, which latter publications, though under the direction of the present writer, were the property of the Leypoldt estate, and still remain the property of his widow. From 1892 until driven out by fire in 1894, the offices were at 28 Elm Street, and after a year's temporary occupancy of 54 Duane Street were removed to 59 Duane Street, adjoining the Edison building, where the present writer had his headquarters as executive of the Edison Company. In 1900 they were removed to the present location at 298 Broadway. All the offices of THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY, therefore, except the first one, are associated in remembrance with Mr. Growoll.

The printers of THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY publications for many years past have been The Kay Printing House, Joseph W. Kay, Jr., Manager, and although the relations between editor and printer are proverbially those of strife, Mr. Growoll was always prompt and hearty in his appreciation of good work and personal service. He was in specially close touch and relationship with Mr. Robert Harrison, the present foreman of that establishment, and with Mr. Jacob Blasius, who was for some years foreman during Mr. Harrison's absence; and an affectionate tribute from Mr. Gibson W. Fairman, of the Kay counting-room, during Mr. Growoll's last illness, was one of the most welcome recognitions of Mr. Growoll's real relations with those with whom he came into indirect touch.

It had become the pleasant custom of THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY office to recognize length of service, not only through its profit-sharing plan, but through specific recognition of notable anniversaries. Accordingly, on the twenty-fifth anniversary of Mr. Growoll's connection with THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY, he was presented from his associates, through the office, June 19, 1902, a set of silver, and on the thirtieth anniversary, June 19, 1907, a silver loving cup, filled to overflowing with the love of all the years that were past—a love which survives in the hearts of his associates now that he has gone from them.

THE GOLDEN JUBILEE TESTIMONIAL.

Few men in this era of constant change attain a golden jubilee in their chosen calling at the early age of fifty-eight. Yet this happy satisfaction came to Mr. Growoll in 1908, when his friends in the booktrade, recognizing the prophetic significance of those early days in Schroeder's bookshop, celebrated his fiftieth anniversary in fitting manner. On the evening of May 14, twenty-four of his friends joined in a surprise dinner to him at the Players' Club, which was fully reported in THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY of May 23, 1908.

The following week, at the eighth annual banquet of the American Booksellers' Association, further honor was paid him by the presentation of a gold hunting-case watch, in the purchase of which his booktrade friends the country over had united. The inscription was as follows:

With the Esteem of
THE AMERICAN BOOKSELLERS to

A. GROWOLL
In grateful recognition of fifty years of service
May 20, 1908.

With the watch was presented a volume handsomely bound in vellum by Mr. Growoll's old friend, Henry Blackwell, which contained letters from 112 publishers and booksellers who had contributed toward the presentation watch. How gladly each one sent his mite is well shown in the following tributes taken from these letters:

ROBERT ADAMS, Bookseller, Fall River, Mass.

I am more than pleased to express my appreciation of the untiring work which Mr. Growoll has done for the trade through THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY. The task, which I can readily see, has been undertaken largely from pure interest in the bookseller's welfare, is one which from a distant standpoint has never had the hearty co-operation and support which so important a matter deserves.

ARTHUR M. ALLEN, Bookseller, Troy, N. Y.

Although I have not had an opportunity of knowing Mr. Growoll personally, I have known him by name and through the columns of THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY for a long time, and I heartily join in the expression of affection and good will toward him.

BAKER & TAYLOR CO.—H. S. BAKER, Publishing Dept., New York City.

We take this opportunity to express our appreciation of the honorable service rendered to the booktrade at large during these many years by Mr. Growoll, whose generous attitude of mind, breadth of vision and integrity of purpose have endeared him to the trade, to whom the expression of these qualities, through THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY, has been an inspiration.

HENRY BLACKWELL, Bookbinder, New York City.

When a man has survived the ordeal of spending fifty years of his life in the ups and downs of the booktrade, he well deserves a monument or recognition of some kind. A life like Mr. Growoll's, unceasingly toiling for the benefit of others, will sure have its reward.

BOBBS-MERRILL CO.—WILLIAM C. BOBBS, Indianapolis.

The healthful, stimulating influence of his sound discrimination, his moderate criticism, favorable or adverse, his high ethical sense, and comprehensive grasp of all the ramifications of this many-sided business, early attracted and have always maintained our most earnest admiration and regard for Mr. Growoll. We offer him through you our heartiest congratulations on this golden anniversary of a life wedded to the business of books.

CHARLES L. BOWMAN, Bookseller, New York City.

There is a rumor abroad that Father Adam gave up a bone for Mother Eve. Whether this is true or not, I do not know, but if true, I am sure he did not give it half as gladly or willingly as I give up this "bone" for Father Growoll. I consider it a pleasure and a privilege to be invited to participate in this little surprise party.

BRENTANO'S.—SIMON BRENTANO, New York City.

Constantly animated to better effort in the profession of bookselling by the zealous work of Adolf Growoll, it is indeed a privilege and pleasure, on his completion of fifty years' active participation in all affairs of the printing, publishing and bookselling trades, to greet him as a rare friend and counsellor, and to express to him our sincere gratefulness for his preachment at all times of all that stood for the best and truest interest of the booktrade. Let us hope that the future years allotted to him will be happy and tranquil, but always with unimpaired enthusiasm and interest for every thing in the Land of Books.

BRENTANO'S.—CHARLES E. BUTLER, New York City.

To Mr. Growoll we all owe much for his long and arduous service in behalf of the trade—a service performed with unselfishness and without hope of reward, being actuated solely by the desire to work for the benefit of us all.

BRYANT & DOUGLAS BOOK AND STATIONERY CO., Kansas City, Mo.

We wish to thank you for the opportunity given us to join with others of the trade in an expression of appreciation of the efforts of Mr. Growoll to advance and encourage the profession and business of bookselling. We cheerfully contribute our little mite, which by no means represents the esteem in which we hold this veteran in the business.

BURROWS BROTHERS CO., Publishers, Cleveland, O.—W. H. CATHCART.

There is not a bookseller of any standing in the country to-day who does not love and admire him for the staunch and loyal support that he has given to all that goes to make the bookselling business a profession in the broadest sense of the word.

CASSELL & CO., LTD.—W. B. HADLEY, New York.

As Mr. Growoll has been my friend in deed as well as word, and as many of the pleasantest memories of my life will be connected with the thought of him, it gives me the most sincere pleasure to express my appreciation of him personally and my gratitude for the many kindly tokens of his good will and esteem. May he long continue with us. There can be no retrograde movement in the publishing world while he lives and continues to preach the gospel of optimism and uphold the dignity of the profession of bookselling.

CENTURY CO., FRANK H. SCOTT, President, New York.

Please convey to Mr. Growoll not only my sincere regards and congratulations upon the completion of his fifty years in the book business, but the thanks of myself and all those that I represent for the service which he has rendered to the trade during all these years. There are many publishers and booksellers, but only one PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY, and Mr. Growoll's admirable work in connection with that journal has laid us all under lasting obligations.

GEORGE E. CHALMERS, Bookseller, Rutland, Vt.

This "mite" will express only in a slight degree our esteem for Mr. Growoll and our deep appreciation of his labors in behalf of the booktrade; and I am sure it is the prayer of every bookseller in the country that God's choicest blessing rest on him all the days of his life.

A. H. CLAPP, Bookseller, Albany, N. Y.

I have not the pleasure of a personal acquaintance with Mr. Growoll, but I have enjoyed hearing him talk at some of our meetings, and know of his great, untiring efforts in behalf of the trade.

IRVING S. COLWELL, Bookseller, Auburn, N. Y.

[To Mr. Growoll.] The noble sentiment of Lord Bacon which appears each week on the editor's page of THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY has certainly found a true exponent in your life work. May many years of health, happiness and labor be yours to enjoy, among the members of the booktrade who delight to call you their true friend.

SEELY CONOVER, Bookseller, Amsterdam, N. Y.

I am rounding out my twenty-ninth year in the book business, and have taken the WEEKLY the entire time. And not least among its features are its eminently fair editorials upon all topics of our trade. May he live long and have continued abundant success.

T. Y. CROWELL & CO., Publishers, New York City.

We thoroughly approve of this effort to express to Mr. Growoll in some way the appreciation of the trade of his untiring efforts for its elevation, and of his intelligent editorial work on THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY.

F. F. DILLINGHAM, Bookseller, Bangor, Me.

As a bookseller for sixty-one years I am glad of an opportunity of assisting in throwing for a moment a ray of light on the pathway of one who has for fifty years been in the book business and is not yet in the poor-house.

DODD, MEAD & CO., FRANK H. DODD, Publishers, New York City.

Mr. Growoll's long and able services to the publishing and bookselling trade deserve recognition, and I most heartily approve of this movement. We are all indebted to him more than we realize, for he has brought to the indispensable task of producing a systematic bibliography and current record of the progress of our trade qualities which few possess.

DOUBLEDAY, PAGE & CO., F. N. DOUBLEDAY, New York City.

I have known Mr. Growoll for twenty years, and during all that time have never had occasion to have a scrap with him. I can say this of very few men, and it proves not only Mr. Growoll's character for treating people kindly, but that he indeed must be a good man.

DUFFIELD & CO., PITTS DUFFIELD, New York City.

I consider Mr. Growoll's management of THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY exemplary, and not only respect but admire the manner in which the paper is conducted. Any accident to THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY or to Mr. Growoll I should consider as calamity to the publishing business.

E. P. DUTTON & CO., CHAS. A. BURKHARDT, New York City.

The Bacon quotation heading the editorial page of THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY should be reversed and read, "The profession is a debtor to you," by way of amends for the untiring and unselfish labor in its behalf, and the generous aid and support you are always ready to give those in need. Personally, I count your friendship as one of the greatest treasures I possess, and while life lasts shall cherish in my memory your kind sympathy and offer to help carry my burden at a time when the load seemed too heavy for my shoulders.

FUNK & WAGNALLS CO., I. K. FUNK, New York City.

Personally, I am very much pleased to hear that a committee has been appointed as a representative of the book dealers to recognize the fiftieth anniversary of Mr. Growoll's connection with THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY. My associates join me in the appreciation of the admirable service which he has rendered us all. Personally, I knew Mr. Growoll as a young man in the office of the WEEKLY. In all these years I have found him always true to the trade. He has been intelligently fair to all dealers and publishers. No one could very well over-estimate the greatness of the service he has rendered to the entire booktrade in America.

JOHN L. GRANT, Bookseller, Utica, N. Y.

If there is one man more than another in the booktrade in America deserving blessing and thanks of the bookseller, it is his esteemed friend Mr. Growoll. He is the man in the trade who should have a monument erected while yet alive, and may he renew his youth and be for many years with us.

HARPER & BROTHERS, Publishers, New York City.

Fifty years is a long time, but when it has been devoted to good endeavors and high ideals, as in the case of Mr. Growoll, those who have been associated with him feel it is a great privilege to express their admiration and respect for him.

HOUGHTON MIFFLIN CO., A. F. HOUGHTON, New York City.

It gives me great pleasure to join in the expression of appreciation for the splendid services that Mr. Growoll has rendered to the publishing business.

U. P. JAMES, Bookseller, Cincinnati.

Though far away from Mr. Growoll's immediate sphere of usefulness, we in distant cities feel in constant touch with him through his weekly message, and all of us, I am sure, derive inspiration and courage from his helpful and hopeful words for a betterment of conditions in the booktrade.

JOHN LANE CO., RUTGER JEWETT, Publishers, New York City.

We feel that his work for his paper has resulted in the greatest possible benefit to the publishers of this country.

J. B. LIPPINCOTT CO., Publishers, Philadelphia.

Mr. Growoll has so long officiated as the Gabriel of the publishing profession, and can play such sweet and penetrating strains upon his trumpet, that we have come to believe his office can never be fitly filled by another.

LITTLE BROWN & CO., J. W. McINTYRE, Publishers, Boston.

I take pleasure in sending Mr. Growoll the thanks of the house with which I am connected for his untiring and conscientious efforts in behalf of the publishing and bookselling interests of the country, in which I do not doubt that the entire booktrade unites.

LOWMAN & HANFORD, W. D. WILSON, Stationers, Seattle.

The importance of Mr. Growoll's work in connection with the booktrade in general can scarcely be overestimated, and we think the idea of the committee an excellent one and give it our most cordial approvement and indorsement.

THE McCLURE CO., Publishers, New York City.

It is a pleasure to use this opportunity to acknowledge the fine debt of gratitude which we publishers and booksellers alike owe to

Mr. Growoll for his half-century of splendid service in the cause of good publishing and bookselling. His sound opinion and conservatism have earned for the periodical which he so ably edits the confidence and respect of us all.

A. C. McCLURG & CO., Publishers, Chicago.

I am most heartily in accord with this movement to give expression to the sincerest esteem entertained by booksellers generally toward Mr. Growoll, who has done so much to instill among the trade respect for the bookseller's functions and to render him assistance in carrying them out.

EDWARD MADISON, Bookseller, Montclair, N. J.

Mr. Growoll has certainly exemplified the thought from Lord Bacon that has been standing on the editorial page of THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY for many years, as a "help and ornament to his profession," and it is but fitting that we should recognize it.

THOS. NELSON & SONS, WM. Thomson, Pres., New York City.

It has been my privilege to know Mr. Growoll personally for the last ten years, and it was impossible to come in contact with him without feeling that he was a true friend to the booktrade, as well as to the individual bookseller, and after a visit from him I always felt that I had been in the company of one of the princes of the booktrade.

OUTING PUBLISHING CO., JOSEPH E. BRAY, Deposit, N. Y.

I am deeply appreciative of Mr. Growoll's efforts for the upbuilding of our profession, and have long admired his untiring and unselfish labors for the good of the cause. His name is a synonym for what is just and right in the trade, and he has never hesitated to condemn that which is wrong just as vigorously as he has indorsed that which is right.

W. MILLARD PALMER, Bookseller, Grand Rapids, Mich.

[To Mr. Growoll.] To know you personally has added to respect and admiration that other element of affection which we most prize in youth and the latter years of life. Your career has not only been the dominant force behind the lives of the individual booksellers, but has probably been the most widely extended influence of any associated with the publishing and bookselling interests.

PENN PUBLISHING CO., C. C. SHOEMAKER, Philadelphia.

The trade owes much to Mr. Growoll; more perhaps than is realized, and if his suggestions and counsel were more carefully followed many of the woes of the retail bookseller would speedily vanish. I am not now, nor ever have been, in the retail booktrade, yet ever since I have been in the publishing business, I have always faithfully read each issue of THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY from cover to cover, and have given special consideration to Mr. Growoll's editorials.

G. P. PUTNAM'S SONS, GEO. HAVEN PUTNAM, Publishers, New York City.

The skilled labor, intelligent initiative, and conscientious service that have been devoted by Mr. Growoll to the interests of the book-trade, which are the interests of the higher education of the community, have proved of assured value in more ways than one. It is my own belief that THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY, for the direction of which Mr. Growoll has, as I understand, during the past years been more immediately responsible, is the most representative and the most effective journal having charge of booktrade matters which is brought into publication anywhere in the world. I am well pleased to have an opportunity of expressing for my firm, and individually for myself, my own obligations to Mr. Growoll and to his editorial associates for the co-operation of THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY in the higher interests of the book-trade.

J. F. RUNYON, Bookseller, Morristown, N. J.

I have an especially kindly feeling in my heart for Mr. Growoll, as he was one of the first of the "old boys" to show a friendly interest toward me after the death of my father.

SCRANTON, WETMORE & CO., ALBERT C. WALKER, Booksellers, Rochester, N. Y.

Mr. Growoll has long stood at the front of every movement looking to the upbuilding and upholding of the profession of book-making and bookselling. His faithful work during these many years, and his genial, amiable character have greatly endeared him to all bookmen who have been privileged to know him, and this sincerity and depth of feeling will be only too feebly expressed in such a movement as you are leading.

H. G. CARPENTER, Bookseller, Ithaca, N. Y.

I think that Mr. Growoll is to be congratulated upon the stand of the work which he has done for the booktrade for so many years.

GEO. WAHR, Bookseller, Ann Arbor, Mich.

Mr. Growoll's services to the booktrade will never be forgotten, and we hope that he still will have a long and prosperous life.

J. R. WELDIN & CO., H. L. MASON, JR., Stationers, Pittsburgh, Pa.

We are most happy to join in this testimonial to one who has labored so long and faithfully in a field so little appreciated by the general public. As business associates, we know it is a work of love with but small financial remuneration.

J. E. WOLLCOTT, Bookseller, Syracuse, N. Y.

Our esteemed co-laborer, Mr. Growoll, has devoted half a century of patient toil in the interests of book production and distribution, and has on every occasion through all trials and vicissitudes of his calling been a loyal optimist full of encouragement and good cheer. To-night we add another expression of our good will toward him, and tender him our heartiest thanks for all he has endeavored to accomplish in our behalf. Let the hope be expressed here that in thus renewing our gratitude to our friend for his words of wisdom to us professionals that we may all measure up to the high standard he has set for our attainment.

In addition to the above, letters were received from the following: Arthur M. Allen, Troy, N. Y.; D. Appleton & Co., New York; Baker-Trisler Co., Des Moines, Ia.; Belknap & Warfield, Hartford, Conn.; Hosmer H. Billings, Elmira, N. Y.; Bridgman & Lyman, Northampton, Mass.; Caldwell-Sites Co., Staunton, Va.; Campion & Co., Philadelphia; C. N. Caspar, Milwaukee; W. E. Chenot, Tampa, Fla.; W. B. Clarke, Boston; R. S. Davis & Co., Pittsburgh, Pa.; Dick & Fitzgerald, New York; H. & W. B. Drew Co., Jacksonville, Fla.; Eau Claire Book & Stationery Co., Eau Claire, Wis.; Dana Estes & Co., Boston; R. F. Fenno & Co., New York; Forsyth & Davis, Kingston, N. Y.; Fleming H. Revell Co., New York; The J. K. Gill Co., Portland, Ore.; E. C. Gnahn, Burlington, Ia.; Goldsmith Book & Stationery Co., Wichita, Kan.; H. Gregory, Providence, R. I.; Grosset & Dunlap, New York; Isaac Hammond, Charleston, S. C.; Hanford & Horton, Middletown, N. Y.; F. F. Hansell & Bro., New Orleans; Lucius R. Hazen, Middletown, Conn.; Henry Holt, New York; International Book & Stationery Co., El Paso, Tex.; George W. Jacobs, Philadelphia; Henry R. Johnson, Springfield, Mass.; Edward P. Judd Co., New Haven, Conn.; Kendrick Book & Stationery Co., Denver, Col.; Charles E. Lauriat Co., Boston; Lester Book & Stationery Co., Atlanta, Ga.; Loring, Short & Harmon, Portland, Me.; Lothrop, Lee & Shepard, Boston; John W. McBride, New York; William R. Matthews, Omaha, Neb.; Moffat, Yard & Co., New York; Lincoln Book Store, P. O. Mahony, Lincoln, Neb.; Teolin Pillot, Houston, Tex.; A. M. Robertson, San Francisco; Robson & Adey, Schenectady, N. Y.; H. Taylor Rogers, Asheville, N. C.; Charles Scribner's Sons, New York; Stromberg & Tenney, Galesburg, Ill.; A. R. Taylor Co., Memphis, Tenn.; Clayton L. Traver, Trenton, N. J.; The Tuttle Co., Rutland, Vt.; Otto Ulbrich Co., Buffalo, N. Y.; E. S. Wills, Greensboro, N. C.

RESOLUTIONS.

*AMERICAN BOOKSELLERS' ASSOCIATION,
Walter L. Butler, president.*

A grand man has passed away; a faithful servant has been called to his reward, in the passing of Mr. Growoll. A life of great usefulness has ceased.

Representing the American Booksellers' Association, and knowing the sentiments of all of them who have come in touch with Mr. Growoll, either directly or through the columns of THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY, I wish to bear this slight testimony of our appreciation of his worth, while living, and of how we shall miss him now that he has passed on. I think it is absolutely within the bounds of truth to say that no one man has labored more constantly and arduously for the benefit of the booksellers of the United States than did Mr. Growoll. He always had his opinions as to what was best for the betterment of the trade, and hesitated not to express them. At the conventions of our American Booksellers' Association he was ever present, and always a welcome attendant.

He will be missed in many ways, but his work will live after him, in the improved conditions brought about by his ideas and his labors.

The sympathy of our entire Association goes out to Mr. Growoll's family at this time, and we feel that the loss is ours.

Formal action on his passing away will undoubtedly be taken at our approaching convention. In the meantime, I wish to send this expression of what I know to be the sentiment of the booksellers of the country, until such formal action is taken.

RESOLUTIONS OF BOOKSELLERS' LEAGUE.

THE Booksellers' League of New York, having heard with inexpressible sorrow of the death of Adolf Growoll, one of its founders, a member of its Board of Managers from its inception, a former president and the League's historian, a special meeting of the Board was held December 9, 1909, at which they unanimously adopted the following minute as an earnest of their love and admiration for their late co-worker.

In this day, when the belief persists that commercialism has conquered our life and thought, a protest was to be found in the person of Adolf Growoll, in whom were united the practical and ideal. He was the sensitive point at which the profession of letters and the business of bookselling touched.

His influence for good was the more far-reaching because it was so unobtrusive. His genial personality, his wit and good-fellowship, paved the way for the consummation of plans conceived in seriousness.

He did big things and gave expression to big ideas in a self-deprecating manner so as to focus attention on the subject rather than on its exponent.

Just as he condemned shams did he admire genuine striving, and many will ever remember the friend who quietly discovered the way in which they needed to be helped and the kindly manner of his sympathetic encouragement.

Conscious of our own great loss, our hearts go out to the bereaved widow and daughter, to whom we offer sincere sympathy and such consolation as may be derived from the consciousness that the memory of Adolf Growoll may live, not only in the hearts of his friends, but in the history of the calling which he honored.

RESOLUTIONS OF N. Y. LIBRARY CLUB.

WHEREAS, the members of the New York Library Club have learned with deep regret of the death of Mr. Adolf Growoll, late Managing Editor of THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY, we desire to put on record this expression of our sincere sympathy with his associates in the office of that paper and of the Library Journal in their great loss, and to express our appreciation of the work done by Mr. Growoll by word and pen, during his long and useful career, for the establishment and maintenance of the highest standards in the making and selling of books.

A NATIONAL LOSS.

The death of Mr. Growoll will be realized as a serious loss not only to his immediate circle of friends, (a circle that included all the members of the booktrade with whom he came into personal relations,) but by publishers and booksellers generally throughout the country, and by all that portion of the community which is concerned with the production, the distribution and the use of books. THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY has for years occupied a position in the centre of book interests, so that its records and its editorial expressions represent the changing conditions of the booktrade, and the interests, larger or smaller, connected with such trade.

Our friend Mr. Growoll has had a keen appreciation of the editorial responsibilities of such a position, and he has in his years of conscientious and skilled labor rendered the most exceptional service to publishers, to booksellers, and to the community. The American booktrade is fortunate in having as its organ a journal conducted on so high a plane of editorial responsibility and of fair-minded impartiality as THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY, and Mr. Growoll's part in maintaining the high standard of editorial service has in more ways than one been important.

We may extend to the editor-in-chief our cordial sympathy with him in his personal loss.

The closing of the life-work of a man like Mr. Growoll does, however, not bring to an end the value of his influence. We may assume that the man who succeeds to his responsibilities will have the advantage and the value of his example and his experience.

GEORGE HAVEN PUTNAM.

A FRIEND'S APPRAISAL.

Of first quality in disposition—of first quality in the gentle art of friendship—of judicial mold in judgment—of superiority in equipment for his life-work—of such capacity in his chosen field that he stood unique as one who showed nothing but completeness in results in his varied labors for the benefit of publishers, booksellers and men in all trades allied to these, such were some of the characteristics of Adolf Growoll. His were the ways that attracted to him all thoughtful men, who discussed with him the topics, important in their bearing upon the interests of the booktrade, and made them proud thereafter to call him friend.

Without parade or showiness in any degree, he met all classes of men with that genuine gentlemanliness that exhibited to them his sincere point of view, and when his statements were made upon intricate questions of great moment to the trade, etc., etc., his positions were admitted to be well fortified by reason and experience. In them, and indeed in all his work, he was convincing almost universally, and that too without giving a hint of being partisan in any sense.

I have held him always in such respect that I have been able to tell him some of these things to his face in life; but now that he is gone I would like to have the record of them made so permanent that future generations of bookmen shall look back upon his history with respect, and honor him frequently in referring to his useful and helpful life.

His was indeed an unusual personality, and in all the range of my acquaintance of men in the same sphere of work, I do not know of another who can fill his place, or in any sense be his substitute.

Let us all labor to keep him well in memory, and often to recount his worth.

JOHN H. DINGMAN.

AN INTIMATE APPRECIATION.

It is fitting that the beloved WEEKLY of Adolf Growoll should receive from one of his friends a tribute to his memory. More especially is this just, since with a self-forgetting modesty in all his life he shrank from the warm praise of the few intimates who measured his work, and marvelled at his unfailing energy and dauntless spirit.

Now that death prevents, alas, his editorial say, may I, his friend, write a feeble appreciation of the characteristics which made him loved by those who knew him.

He was a man of noble courage, a devoted husband, a good father; a generous, loyal, warm-hearted friend, and a worthy citizen of the Republic.

He was intensely human, and he loved humanity. He never spoke harshly of any one, and he was most patient under injuries done to himself. He found excuses for all frailty in the tenderness of his own large heart. He was a delightful companion, and none pleasanter ever sat to table. He fought with unceasing energy the fight of the American booktrade, and he worked grievously hard, never sparing himself. He lived closer to the noble standard he had set himself than any one I ever knew.

We are all the better men that A. G. lived, and the poorer that he has passed from amongst us.

EDWARD BYRNE HACKETT.

PRINTER, BOOKLOVER, BIBLIOGRAPHER.

Adolf Growoll as a boy was brought up at the case. His mastery of every detail of the printer's art stood him in good stead during his long career as an editor. He took delight in the successive advances—the composing machine, the color press, the folding and binding devices, which have so much lessened the cost of book manufacture. But while no one took more pleasure in the exhibits at the Grolier Club than he did, it was after all what a book contained that interested him first and most. Only a month before his untimely death I showed him Nelson's shilling reprints of English masterpieces. He was particularly pleased with the volume of Birrell's essays, with its special preface and portrait. He rejoiced that in this series, in other series of like merit, only the best literature is admitted, always, too, in a worthy presentation. He told me that France and Germany have long enjoyed their classics at similar low prices and in equally good editions. Thus, quite incidentally, as he said, the publishers concerned have greatly furthered an "appreciation of literature" such as the American Library Association has long had in view. When I was on its Publishing Board, engaged preparing annotated lists of books, Adolf Growoll gave me cheerful and indispensable aid. His richly stored memory, his sound sense, were ever at my service. And so it was with all his other friends. That is why we refuse to be comforted now that he is gone.

GEORGE ILES.

MORE LOVING TRIBUTES.

T. S. BECKWITH, Petersburgh, Va.

He has left as a precious legacy the fragrant memory of his tenderness and purity, his generosity and integrity, his nice sense of honor and chivalry, and of all those stern and gentle virtues that we unconsciously associate with the loftiest type of the high-bred gentleman. I feel the personal loss of a very dear friend.

A. J. BOWDEN, With Geo. H. Richmond, New York City.

He was a man to whom I "took" at once twenty years ago. Growoll was every inch a man. He was severe upon humbugs and incompetents, but none quicker to recognize merit and honest endeavor; none quicker or more liberal in their praise. No single man has done more to uplift the booktrade than dear Growoll. His loss is hard to overestimate, and it can only be lightened by a steady resolve to keep to those paths mapped out by him. That will be the best monument to Adolf Growoll.

SIMON BRENTANO, Brentano's, New York City.

In our store Mr. Growoll was very beloved by all of us, very close to us, and we also feel there has passed out of our lives a sincere and able man and a true friend. It is not necessary to touch upon the high qualities he always exercised in his vocation. He never lost his enthusiasm or neglected to fight for all that stood for the best in the work of publishing and bookselling.

C. N. CASPAR, Milwaukee, Wis.

Mr. Growoll was one of the most unselfish men that I ever met, but at the same time, one who set an example as a hard worker and a man of heart who had sympathy with his fellow citizens.

W. B. CLARKE, W. B. Clarke & Co., Boston, Mass.

I cannot adequately express the sense of grief which I feel personally at the death of Mr. Growoll. I valued his personal friendship, and recognized how much the booktrade is indebted to him for his heartfelt interest in its welfare. His editorials were a source of inspiration, and have been instrumental in encouraging the booksellers in the dark hours through which we have been passing.

JAMES L. COWLES, Postal Progress League, Boston; New York City.

I shall greatly miss his kindly greeting, his cordial sympathy. It was such a comfort to know that he was near by, ready to give me a word of encouragement, a friendly hand grasp when I felt down-hearted. This old world of ours has lost one of its noblemen.

T. Y. CROWELL & CO., New York City.

Mr. Growoll will be greatly missed from publishing circles.

J. J. DALY, Daly's Book Shop, New York City.

I have known Adolf Growoll for a quarter of a century. As a tribute of respect I desire to record that I have few friends, but he was one of them. No matter how, when or where you met Adolf Growoll, you met a real man. To me this is a better world for having met him.

W. DRYSDALE, Montreal, Canada.

I had the privilege of knowing and appreciating much of what our booksellers' friend, Adolf Growoll, had written. He was certainly an enthusiast, and the motto from Lord Bacon which heads each number of the WEEKLY exemplified truly his attitude to the profession of bookselling, which he loved and he sought in every way within his reach to work for the betterment of the trade. He will be much missed.

WILBERFORCE EAMES, Librarian Lenox Library, New York City.

My first acquaintance with Mr. Growoll goes back about twenty years. I came to know Mr. Growoll intimately when he was preparing his work on "American Book Clubs," and the friendship was broadened and strengthened in the years to come. We were both interested in bibliographical matters, and this led to co-operative work in "Three Centuries of Book-Trade Bibliography." I have lost one of my best and oldest friends.

W. Y. FOOTE, W. Y. Foote Co., Syracuse, N. Y.

I saw Mr. Growoll in his office November 26, and presume I was one of the last of the booksellers to hold conversation with him. Mr. Growoll's remarks, as usual, were optimistic and inspiring as to the outlook, and he was very anxious to have the booksellers maintain their price, even if it became necessary to let the sale on fiction go to the department store. He expressed a fervent hope that the booksellers would bring the price of fiction and of other books to a net basis as soon as possible.

WARREN F. GREGORY, Lothrop, Lee & Shepard Co.

We are greatly shocked at the announcement of the sudden death of Adolf Growoll, whom we, in common with all who are genuinely interested in striving to produce and distribute books according to worthy aims and standards, had to learn to honor, revere and love.

HARPER & BROTHERS, New York City.

We have known Mr. Growoll so long that we have a sense of personal loss now that he is removed from us. The booktrade has certainly lost an efficient and conscientious member. He impressed us as a man of strict integrity who loved his calling and sought to elevate and adorn it. We shall miss his cheerful face and dignified manner, and the memory of his honorable life remains with us.

HOUGHTON MIFFLIN CO., Boston. (F. J. G.)

The premature taking off of Mr. Growoll is indeed a severe loss to THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY, which he so ably and faithfully conducted. We extend our heartiest sympathy and the expression of our warm appreciation of the services which has rendered to the publishing trade of the United States.

HURST & CO., New York City.

You have lost a valuable man, and we extend our sympathy.

RALPH B. JEWETT, John Lane Co., New York City.

Please accept our sincere sympathy in the great loss which I feel that we have all sustained in the death of Mr. Growoll. Men of his quality are far too rare in business, and the place made vacant is almost impossible to fill.

E. W. JOHNSON, New York City.

Although I was not very intimate with Mr. Growoll, I had a high regard for him both as a personal friend and as a bookman. I knew him for several years, and should have esteemed it an honor to have known him longer.

W. DAWSON JOHNSTON, Librarian Columbia University.

Mr. Growoll was one of the pioneers of American bibliography to whom I feel most indebted. I feel this indeed so keenly that I find it difficult to describe my great obligations to him. I must, however, send this word to tell you that we at the University grieve with you over your loss—the loss of a master workman.

HENRY E. LEGLER, Librarian Chicago Public Library.

Modest as to his own attainments, silent as to his own contributions along the lines of his life work, Mr. Growoll sought rather to give prominence to the achievements of others. Many a beginner owed to his kindly encouragement and recognition the stimulus that led to more ambitious efforts. His services to the booktrade, and to the publishing interests generally, were important and of permanent value. His name belongs with those of that notable group, chief among whom may be mentioned Rich, Norton, Sabbin, Stevens, and, ranking them all, Leypoldt. Those of his contemporaries who had the privilege of knowing him personally, and to appreciate the mellow nature of a true man, will not only feel the loss sustained by their circle, but there will come to each one of them a sense of personal loss as well.

LEMCKE & BUECHNER, New York City.

We deplore the irreparable loss which has befallen the Office of the Publishers' Weekly by the sudden departure of that worthy and brave man and excellent character, our mutual friend, A. Growoll. For almost two-score of years we were in constant touch with him. Of never-failing kindness and good humor, he had stern qualities which made him appreciated by all who ever came in contact with him.

J. BERTRAM LIPPINCOTT, J. B. Lippincott Co., Philadelphia.

We have held Mr. Growoll in the highest esteem, both for the unimpeachable integrity which marked his life and for the faithful years of service he devoted to the interests of literature. It is with deep regret we realize that the friendship of so many years is severed.

LITTLE, BROWN & CO., Boston.

The publishing interests of the United States are deprived of the aid of an esteemed co-worker who held their profession in the highest esteem and lent much that is of lasting value to it.

L. COUES PAGE, L. C. Page & CO., Boston.

There was never a better fellow or more earnest worker in the interests of the publishing profession in general, as well as in the interests of the paper he loved so much and had so much to do with. My brother, [George A. Page,] who was also personally acquainted with Mr. Growoll, wishes to join me in this expression of our general bereavement and loss.

R. HAROLD PAGET, The John McBride Co., New York City.

The loss of such a man to the American book world is irreparable—for it is not only a matter of the cessation of his invaluable services to it, but the withdrawal of a personality of benign influence. It seems only yesterday we sat together at his genial luncheon table and spoke speculatively of the "beyond" into which he has vanished. May his presence there give us who are left here an ever greater sense of its reality.

VICTOR H. PALTSITS, State Historian, Albany, N. Y.

Mr. Growoll was a man who showed the finest qualities of critical acumen in his professional labors and was without a peer in his knowledge of the whole field of publishing interests in the United States. He was so painstaking and conscientious in his own work that he could not stand a quack. A lover of truth, he was knit in friendship to those who were lovers of truth. When he had once formed a friendship, it remained as firm as steel and as eternal as the stars in the firmament.

ROGER L. SCAIFE, Houghton Mifflin Co.

I cannot think of any one man identified with the book business who gathered him as many good friends as did Mr. Growoll. While we in Boston did not see him as often as we could wish, we claim our share in his friendship, and we feel his loss as keenly.

GILBERT H. SHEARER, Lea & Febiger, Philadelphia.

Growoll's death is as severe a loss as bibliography could know; to you it is almost irreparable. His co-laborers on the WEEKLY have my hearty sympathy. You may possibly recollect that I was on your staff in 1879, when I first met and knew how to value our dead friend.

C. C. SHOEMAKER, Penn Publishing Company.

Mr. Growoll's loss to the trade will be great, but to me it is a personal loss, because I held him in highest esteem.

H. M. STARKE, Starke's Dixie Plow Works, Richmond, Va.

Mr. Growoll was one of the first friends I made in New York, after I started in the book business in 1880, and he proved one of the truest and best. When we organized the Virginia Booksellers' Association, it was to Growoll that we went for counsel and advice. The recollections of the many times he attended our annual gatherings and by his wise counsel and genial manners guided us away from the dangerous "trade rocks" are amongst the pleasantest recollections of my twenty-odd years in the booktrade. The trade has lost its wisest guide and counsellor; all of us have lost a true friend.

REUBEN G. THWAITES, Superintendent of the Wisconsin Historical Society, Madison, Wis.

During the past fifteen years of his life I rather frequently had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Growoll in a semi-social way. He always impressed me as a man of wide reading and catholic tastes in literature, who had acquired a keen knowledge of human nature. Much of a philosopher, his comments on men and things were incisive and discriminating, but always tempered by a rare kindness of spirit. I shall long miss his friendly handshake and merry quips. To those with whom he had communion of spirit, he was ever a most genial friend.

OSCAR WEGELIN, Bookseller, New York City.

The removal of Adolf Growoll from our midst is probably the greatest blow which the booktrade has sustained in the last fifty years. Personally, I fear, he cannot be replaced.

J. WEITENKAMPF, Print Department, New York Public Library.

With all his work, Mr. Growoll always held our art department in friendly remembrance, and frequently sent us monographs on individual artists, (cut from the German Börsenblatt,) all of which were bound and preserved.

CHARLES WELSH, International Correspondence School, Scranton, Pa.

For fifteen years I have counted Mr. Growoll upon my best friends in the trade. He was a man to be loved and to be relied upon. His departure leaves a great gap in the ranks of the bookselling army, every soldier in which halts in his march to lay a tribute on his bier.

LOUIS WINDMULLER, New York City.

Adolf Growoll, a man of strong mind and of rare ability, has been stricken by disease and death in the prime of his life. Never loath to tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, he was yet of gentle disposition and generous impulse. The memory of this noble man will live in the hearts of his countless friends as long as they continue to beat.

BIBLIOGRAPHY OF A. GROWOLL'S BOOKS.

GROWOLL, Adolf. A bookseller's library and how to use it. N. Y., Office of the Publishers' Weekly, 1891. c. 72+23 p. S.

A guide for the bookseller to the more important and practical works of reference necessary to his profession, with a few plain directions as to how they may be best put to use. Contains chapters on How to use a trade journal; How to use "The Publishers' Trade List Annual"; Trade catalogues; American, English, German and French; Books about books which relate to books; Library catalogues; Trade and literary journals; Bookseller's reference library; Reference library for dealers in second-hand books; Booksellers' catalogues on second-hand books; Auction catalogues; How to use the apparatus.

— American book clubs, their beginnings and history, and a bibliography of their publications. N. Y., Dodd, Mead & Co., 1897. c. 14+423 p. D. limited to 300 copies, $7.50; Japan pap., 20 copies, $15.

Traces the publishing activity of the early American literary societies from the Junto down to the Dolphians (1726-1825). Followed by descriptions of thirty-eight clubs, beginning with the first known, the Seventy-Six Society (1854) and ending with the latest, the Dibdin Club (1897). A bibliography of the publications of every club follows its description. The information has been verified by surviving members of extinct clubs or by officers of existing clubs. Specially valuable are the facts relating to the character of the publications, which facts cover much of the political, social and literary history of America.

— The Booksellers' League: a history of its formation and ten years of its work. N. Y., The Booksellers' League, 1905. 245 p. D. gratis.

The Booksellers' League is the first booktrade organization formed with the purpose of uniting its members primarily for social intercourse, but with the intention also of raising the standards and equipment of the calling. It was organized in December, 1894, as a national society with headquarters in New York City. It has maintained an employment bureau and in other ways has aided the younger members of the trade. This volume tells the story of its first decade in authoritative detail, and is an interesting and encouraging record of successful work.

— Booktrade bibliography in the United States in the sixteenth century; to which is added A catalogue of all the books printed in the United States, with the prices and places where published annexed; published by the booksellers in Boston in January, 1804. N. Y., printed for the Dibdin Club, 1898. c. 77; 77 p. S. hf. leath., bds. English ed. for sale by Sampson Low, Marston & Co.

Gives a brief survey of the beginning of booktrade bibliography, chapters on the first booktrade catalogue published in the United States, booktrade helps and a chronological list of the catalogues and booktrade and literary journals published in the United States from 1801 to 1897. The work of booktrade associations from 1801 to 1892 is reviewed and the author presents biographical sketches of the American bookseller bibliographers, Roorbach, Morton, Rode, Rich, Stevens, Trübner, Kelly, Sabin, and Leypoldt.

— Henry Harris; biographical and bibliographical sketch. N. Y., The Dibdin Club, 1899. c. 16 p. pap.

An authoritative sketch of the author of the "Bibliotheca Americana Vetustissima" and of a number of works relating to Columbus and the discovery of America. A complete short-title list of his bibliographical writings is appended. A scarce portrait of Harris, taken when he was thirty-five, forms the frontispiece.

— Frederick Leypoldt; biographical and bibliographical sketch. N. Y., The Dibdin Club, 1899. c. 15 p. 12°, pap., gratis.

A brief biographical compilation relating to the work of the founder of THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY to him. Mr. Growoll was for many years a most valued and congenial assistant.

— The profession of bookselling: a handbook of practical hints for the apprentice and bookseller. In 3 pts. pts. 1, II. N. Y., 1893, 1895. c. pt. 1, 1-58; pt. 2, 59-141 p. O. bds., ea., $2.

The first part contains chapters on "Preparatory training"; "Entering the profession"; "Bibliography of literature"; "Supplementary reading"; "In the store"; "Trade catalogues," etc.; comprising the matter contained in "A bookseller's library," which has gone out of print and will not be issued again; "Arrangement and care of stock"; "Stock books"; "Classification"; "Tables"; "Bulletin boards"; "Dusting"; "Window dressing"; "Advertising"; "Learning stock"; "Buying stock"; "The order department"; and "Delivery and shipping departments." The second part contains chapters on "Insurance"; "How to keep a stock of music"; "Newspapers, magazines and books issued in parts"; "The circulating library"; "Bookbinding," from a practical and historical point of view, with 15 page plates; both parts fully indexed.

Mr. Growoll left the third part of this work well in hand and it will be published shortly. It will contain chapters on the antiquarian booktrade; salesmen—in the store, and on the road; subscription bookselling; bookkeeping, stationers' supplies, etc. This useful work is made up of the editorials furnished by Mr. Growoll to the PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY, many of which have been reprinted in English and German trade papers.

— James Thomson; biographical and bibliographical sketch by A. G. N. Y., printed for the author, 1893. 16 p. 18°, pap., gratis.

Brief literary and bibliographical sketch of the author of "The City of Dreadful Night," with a bibliography of some of his other works.

— Three centuries of English booktrade bibliography; an essay of the beginnings of booktrade bibliography since the introduction of printing, and in England since 1595. [Also] List of the catalogues, etc., published for the English booktrade, from 1595-1902, by Wilberforce Eames. N. Y., The Dibdin Club, [M. L. Greenhalgh,] 1903. c. 15+195 p. pors. facsimiles, O. hf. leath., $5 net.

To prepare an introduction to his "Booktrade bibliography in the United States in sixteenth century," published in 1898, the author first began collecting the material out of which this book grew. It became too much for its purpose and was made a separate book. Through his connections with publishers, librarians, bibliographers and collectors in America and Europe much very rare material was consulted, and the very scarce facsimiles and portraits were put at his disposal. The chapter on "The beginnings of booktrade bibliography is a distinct contribution to the subject." The annotations to the bibliography compiled by Wilberforce Eames, Librarian of the Lenox Library, N. Y. City, are full of rare information.

WEEKLY RECORD OF NEW PUBLICATIONS.

 The prices of net books issued by publishers who protect the prices of their new publications are preceded in this list by the double asterisk , and the word net follows the price. Works of fiction (not net) of which a minimum price is protected by their publishers, are preceded by a dagger †. The prices of net books not protected are preceded by a single asterisk *, and the word net follows the price.

The abbreviations are usually self-explanatory. c. after the date indicates that the book is copyrighted; if the copyright date differs from the imprint date, the year of copyright is added. Books of foreign origin of which the edition (annotated, illustrated, etc.) is entered as copyright, are marked c. ed.; translations, c. tr.; n. p., in place of price, indicates that the publisher makes no price, either net or retail, and quotes prices to the trade only upon application.

A colon after initial designates the most usual given name, as: A: Augustus; B: Benjamin; C: Charles; D: David; E: Edward; F: Frederick; G: George; H: Henry; I: Isaac; J: John; L: Louis; N: Nicholas; P: Peter; R: Richard; S: Samuel; T: Thomas; W: William.

Sizes are designated as follows: F. (folio: over 30 centimeters high); Q. (4to: under 30 cm.); O. (8vo: 25 cm.); D. (12mo: 20 cm.); S. (16mo: 17½ cm.); T. (24mo: 15 cm.); Tt. (32mo: 12½ cm.); Fe. 48mo: 10 cm.). Sq., obl., nar., designate square, oblong, narrow books of these heights.

- Acton, J: Emerich E: Dalberg-Acton, [Lord Acton.] Cambridge modern history; planned by Lord Acton; ed. by Adolphus W: Ward, G: Walter Prothero and Stanley Mordaunt Leathes. In 12 v. v. 6, The eighteenth century. N. Y., Macmillan, 1909. c. 33+1019 p. O. cl., $4 net.
- Aeschylus. The plays of Aeschylus; tr. by Walter Headlam and C. E. S. Headlam. N. Y., Macmillan, 1909. 16+320 p. 12°, (Bohn's libraries.) cl., *$1 net.
- Almanach de Gotha, annuaire généalogique, diplomatique et statistique, 1910: cent quarante-septième année. [N. Y., Lemcke & Buechner, 1909.] 24+1224 p. pors. T. cl., $2.70.
- Amateur Athletic Union of the United States. Official handbook of the Amateur Athletic Union of the United States; constitution, by-laws, general and athletic rules; as adopted by the Amateur Athletic Union and revised by the Rules Committee. N. Y., American Sports Publishing Co., 1909. c. 12 p. front. 12°, (Spalding athletic lib.) pap., 10 c.
- American Railway Master Mechanics' Association. Locomotive dictionary; an illustrated vocabulary of terms which designate American railway locomotives, their parts, attachments and details of construction, with definitions and illustrations of typical British locomotive practice; 5266 illustrations. 1909 ed.; comp. for the American Railway Master Mechanics' Association by G: L. Fowler under the supervision of the following committee: J. F. Deems, A. W. Gibbs, A. E. Mitchell. N. Y., Railroad Age Gazette, 1909. c. 4+539 p. diagrs., f°, $6.
- Anderson, A. J. The romance of a friar and a nun; being the romance of Fra Filippo Lippi; with numerous il. from paintings by Fra Lippo Lippi. N. Y., Dodd, Mead & Co., 1909. 8°, cl., *$2.50 net.
- Atkinson, Frank H. Atkinson sign painting up to now; a complete manual of the art of sign painting; contains 96 designs or layouts and accompanying color notes; 75 alphabets embracing all standard styles, their modifications and alternates; comprehensive text covering all practical phases of the art, for every day reference in the shop. Chic., Frederick J. Drake & Co., [1909.] c. 4+378 p. il. pls. 8°, $3.
- Bacon, Roger. Liber primus Communium naturalium Fratris Rogeri; partes prima et secunda; edidit Robert Steele. [N. Y., Oxford University Press, (Amer. Branch,) 1909.] 6+137 p. O. (Opera hactenus inedita Rogeri Baconi fasc. II.) pap., $3.40.
- Bacon, Roger. Metaphysica Fratris Rogeri ordinis fratrum minorum de vicis contractis in studio theologie; omina quae supersunt nunc primum; edidit Robert Steele. [N. Y., Oxford University Press, (Amer. Branch,) 1909.] 8+55 p. O. (Opera hactenus inedita Rogeri Baconi fasc. I.) pap., $1.75.
- Balzac, Honoré de. Comédie humaine. Centenary ed.; tr. by Katharine Prescott Wormeley; il. with photogravure plates. Bost., Little, Brown & Co., 1909. 12°, ea., cl., $1.50.
Contents: v. 34, Letters to Mme. Hanska; v. 35, A woman of thirty and other studies, tr. by G: Burnham Ives; v. 36, The muse of the department and other stories, tr. by G. Burnham Ives.
- Bangs, J: Kendrick. The autobiography of Methuselah; ed. by J: Kendrick Bangs; il. in color by F. G. Cooper. N. Y., B. W. Dodge & Co., 1909. c. 185 p. 12° cl., $1.
Humorous account which "George W. Methuselah, Arrarat Corners, B.C. 2348," chisels out on stone tablets, his completed manuscript weighing 340 tons. Adam, Eve, Noah and other Bible characters give their comments on contemporary life and events. Mr. Cooper's drawings have caught the spirit of the book admirably.
- Bard, Harry Erwin. The city school district; statutory provisions for organization and fiscal affairs. N. Y., Teachers' College, Columbia University, 1909. c. 118 p. 8°, (Teachers' College, Columbia University; Contributions to education.) $1. Bibliography (4 p.).
- Benson, Father Rob. Hugh. A mystery play in honour of the nativity of our Lord. New ed., (text only.) N. Y., Longmans, Green & Co., 1909. 28 p. S. pap., 20 c. For notice see Annual American Catalog, 1908.
- Besant, Sir Walter. London in the nineteenth century. N. Y., Macmillan, 1909. 10+423 p. il. map, 4°, cl., *$7.50 net.
- Bonomelli, Bp. Jeremias. New series of homilies for the whole year; tr. by Right Rev. T: Sebastian Byrne. In 4 v. N. Y., Benziger Bros., 1909. c. 334; 313; 383; 412 p. O. cl., $5, boxed.
Homilies for the Roman Catholic year. There are one hundred and four homilies divided equally between the four volumes. Begins with the ecclesiastical year of Advent, and ends with Quinquagesima Sunday. Index and list of Catholic books at end.

Borden, G: Rome. Physical training for the school and class room (suitable for between desks;) il. with half-tone cuts of the author. N. Y., American Sports Publishing Co., [1909.] c. 31 p. por. 12°, (Spalding's athletic lib.) pap., 10 c.

Branston, J: W.; ["R. B. Brown," pseud.] Girders for electric overhead cranes. N. Y., Industrial Press, 1909. c. 35 p. diagrs., 8°, (Machinery's reference ser.) pap., 25 c.

British (The) Journal photographic almanac and photographer's daily companion for 1909; with which is incorporated the "Year book of photography" and "Amateurs' guide for 1909"; ed. by G: E. Brown. [N. Y., George Murphy, Inc., 1909.] 1318 p. D. cl., $1; pap., 50 c.

Brooklyn Public Library. A reading and reference list on costume. Brooklyn, N. Y., Brooklyn Public Library, 1909. 64 p. O. pap., gratis.

Brooks, J: Graham. The conflict between private monopoly and good citizenship. Bost., Houghton Mifflin Co., 1909. c. 43 p. S. cl., 50 c. net.

Mr. Brooks is president of the National Consumers' League, author of "Social unrest," "As others see us," etc. The heart of the whole book may be summed up in these words: "the railroad is the one key to the control of all monopolies, including those that often last just long enough to fleece the properties according to get-rich quick principles. This is the ugliest economic fact, as the ugliest political fact is the corruption of officials and legislators.

Browne, Edith A. Greece; il. with 12 full-page color plates by E: H. Fitchew and J: Fulleylove. N. Y., Macmillan, 1909. 8+88 p. map, 12°, (Peeps at many lands.) cl., *75 c. net.

Bryce, Clarence Archibald, M.D. The gentleman's dog, his rearing, training and treatment. Richmond, Va., Southern Clinic Print, [4 E. Clay St.,] 1909. 123 p. front. D. cl., $1.

The bird dog is called the "gentleman's dog," because, the author says, "we cannot dissociate the bird dogs" from the "old Virginia gentleman." Feeding, wounds, diseases and training from a puppy up are some of the things discussed. Index.

Buckham, J: Wright, D.D. Personality and the Christian ideal: a discussion of personality in the light of Christianity. Bost., Pilgrim Press, [1909.] c. 16+263 p. O. cl., $1.50 net.

The author has used some of the chapters of the book as lectures before his students in Pacific Theological College, Berkeley, Cal. The understanding of our personality and its development along the highest plain open to us, the realization of our selfhood, the building up of a true society of persons, a kingdom of God, with God, the Perfect Person, ruling over all, is the teaching of this book.

Buonarrotti, Michelangelo. Masterpieces of Michaelangelo; 60 reproductions of photographs from the original works. N. Y., Frederick A. Stokes Co., 1909. 24°, (Painters' ser.) leath., *75 c. net; pap., *25 c. net.

Burke, Mary C. School room echoes; book 1. Bost., Richard G. Badger, 1909. c. 215 p. por. D. cl., $1.50.
Collection of poems suitable for schoolroom use.

Butler, Alford A.; D.D. How to understand the words of Christ. N. Y., Thomas Whitaker, Inc., 1909. c. 182 p. 12°, cl., *90 c. net.

Butler, Lady Elizabeth. From sketch-book and diary; with 28 il. in colour and 21 small sketches in the text by the author. [N. Y., Macmillan,] 1909. 10+177 p. O. (Color books ser., Miscellaneous.) cl., $2.50 net.

Lady Butler went to the west of Ireland, Egypt, Cape Colony and Italy, staying some time in each place. This book is made up of letters and a diary written during her travels and illustrated by colored sketches and other small ones in black and white, which give interesting glimpses of the countries and people inhabiting them.

Butler, Elizabeth Beardsley. Women and the trades; Pittsburgh, 1907-1908. N. Y., Charities Publication Committee, 1909. c. 440 p. pls. O. (Russell Sage foundation pubs.; Pittsburgh Survey findings; ed. by Paul Underwood Kellog.) cl., $1.50 net.

The Pittsburgh Survey received appropriations of $27,000 from the Russell Sage Foundation to carry out its purpose of making a careful and fairly comprehensive study of the conditions under which working people live and labor in a great industrial city. There are to be six volumes of the Survey's findings issued, of which this is the first. Miss Butler made the investigation of the conditions pertaining to women, of whom there are 22,000 employed in the many great industries of Pittsburgh. Good and bad are reported and the work should be of great help toward the betterment of industrial conditions for women. Bibliography (6 p.). Index.

Call, Annie Payson. Nerves and common sense. Bost., Little, Brown & Co., 1909. c. 8+280 p. 12°, cl., $1.25 net.

Call, W: Timothy. Vocabulary of checkers; a dictionary of words, terms and phrases used in the game called checkers, or English draughts. [Hawthorne, N. J., C. M. Potterdon,] 1909. c. 210 p. figs. D. cl., $2.
The information used in writing this book was obtained from the 227 separate works on the game of checkers that have been printed in English since 1756.

Cane, W. Ralph Hall. The Isle of Man; 20 plates in color by A. Heaton Cooper. N. Y., Macmillan, 1909. 26+240 p. sq. 8°, (Color books ser.) cl., $2 net.

Cardigan and Lancastre, Adeline Louise Maria de Horsey, Countess of. My recollections. N. Y., John Lane Co., (The Bodley Head,) 1909. 12+178 p. pors. O. cl., $3.50 net.

The Countess of Cardigan was born in 1828 and during her long and eventful life has known most of England's and Europe's famous people and seen most of the things and places worth seeing. Her first husband, the Earl of Cardigan, led the charge of the Light Brigade. Her recollections are more frank in mentioning names and scandals than is usual in memoirs of living persons.

Catholic home annual for 1910. N. Y., Benziger Bros., 1909. 80 p. il. sq. O. pap., 25c.

Chadwick, French Ensor. The relations of the United States and Spain; diplomacy. N. Y., Scribner, 1909. c. 9+610 p. O. cl., $4 net.

In this important work Admiral Chadwick takes up the relations of Spain and the United States from the first time they came in contact with each other, and throws new light on the discussion over the Louisiana purchase from France, the trouble over Florida, the events of the Grant Administration, and the Cuban question; tracing finally, in a clear, decisive, and comprehensive manner, step by step, the incidents which led up to the Spanish war. Index.

Chase, F. H.; D.D. Confirmation in the Apostolic Age. N. Y., Macmillan, 1909. 13+136 p. 12°, cl., *80 c. net.

Chesney, E., [Mrs. E. P. Charlewood,] comp Life and the great forever; daily readings in prose and verse. N. Y., John Lane Co., (The Bodley Head,) [1909.] 11+378 p. S. cl., *$1.50 net.

Daily readings not wholly of a devotional nature, but all of a helpful character. There are quotations under many different headings, a few of which are Deeds, Society, Desires, Convalescent, Content, Friends, etc.

Clark, Albert Curtis. Inventa Italarum; being a contribution to the textual criticism of Cicero; Pro Qvinctio, Pro Roscio Comodo, Pro Caecina, De lege agraria contra Rvllm, Pro Rabiro perdvellionis reo, Pro Flacco, In Pisonem, Pro Rabirio postvmo; with 3 facsimiles. [N. Y., Oxford University Press, (Amer. Branch.)] 1909. 86 p. O. (Anecdota Oxoniensia, classical ser.) pap., $3.40.

Author is Fellow of Queen's College, Oxford, Reader in Latin.

Clark, Albert Curtis, comp. Fontes prosae nvmerosae. [N. Y., Oxford University Press, (Amer. Branch.)] 1909. 48 p. O. bds., $1.50.

Intended for students attending a course of lectures given upon the metrical element in Latin prose. The connection of the rhythmical prose of the Middle Ages with metrical system from which it had sprung, remained unnoticed until recent years. Bibliography (1 p.).

Cohen, Jos. E. Socialism for students. Chic., Charles H. Kerr & Co., 1910, [1909.] c. 153 p. S. cl., 50 c.

Articles reprinted from The International Socialist Review, giving outlines of the more salient points of socialist philosophy. Bibliography (4½ p.).

Collmann, Sophie M. Art talks with young folks. Cin., Young Israel Publishing Co., 1909. c. 110 p. il. O. cl., $1.50.

Little stories intended to furnish material for the children's story hour, presenting pictures, statues, and their makers in such a way that children may read about them with pleasure and become familiar with and learn to love the world's masterpieces.

Cort, Howard R. The Donakin circus; from Don's book of Donakins. N. Y., Frederick A. Stokes Co., 1909. c. '08. no paging, il. in col. obl. O. bds., $1.

Tells in rhyme how Don was looking at a hippodrome book when suddenly the animals and clowns came out of the pages and performed all their tricks.

Coxhead, Margaret Duncan. Mexico; with 12 reproductions in colour of original drawings by J. H. Robinson. N. Y., Frederick A. Stokes Co., [1909.] 11+284 p. map, O. (Romance of history ser.; ed. by J. Lang.) cl., $2 net.

An account of the conquest of Mexico with the brave and daring deeds of the Spaniards, who, in spite of their greed for gold, never lacked in courage; also a description of the Aztecs and their utter overthrow.

Cromie, W: Ja. Parallel bar exercises. N. Y., American Sports Publishing Co., [1909.] c. 71 p. il. por. 12°, (Spalding's athletic lib.) pap., 10 c.

Cromie, W: Ja. Pyramid building. N. Y., American Sports Publishing Co., 1909. c.

2 v., il. por. 12°, (Spalding's athletic lib.) pap., 10 c.

Contents: pt. I, Without apparatus; pt. II, With wands, chairs and ladders.

Crucé, Émeric. Le nouveau Cynée; the new Cyneas of Émeric Crucé; the French text; reprinted from the original ed. of 1623; together with an English tr. and an introd. by T: Willing Balch. Phil., Allen, Lane & Scott, 1909. 31+363 p. 8°, cl., $2.

Daggett, Mabel Potter. In Lockerbie Street; a little appreciation of James Whitcomb Rile. N. Y., B. W. Dodge & Co., 1909. c. 13-28 p. il. por. 8°, hf. cl., 50 c.

A sympathetic little sketch of James Whitcomb Rile in his Lockerbie Street home.

Daley, Myra. Jerd Cless. N. Y., Cochrane Publishing Co., 1909. c. 484 p. 12°, $1.50.

Daudet, Alphonse. Lettres de mon moulin; selected and edited by G. H. Clarke. N. Y., Macmillan, 1909. 8+140 p. map, 12°, (Siepmann's advanced French ser.) cl., *60 c. net.

Defoe, Daniel. Defoe: [selections;] ed. by J: Masefield. N. Y., Macmillan, 1909. 35+388 p. 12°, (Masters of literature.) cl., *$1.10 net.

Descaves, Lucien, ed. The color of Paris; historic, personal and local; by the members of the Académie Goncourt; under the general editorship of Lucien Descaves; il. by 60 full-page pictures in color from aquarelles made for this book by a Japanese artist, Yoshio Markino. N. Y., Dodd, Mead & Co., 1909. 8°, cl., *$6 net, boxed.

Deutsch-englische lesebücher für katholische schulen; German-English readers for Catholic schools. [In 3 v.:] Erstes lesebuch; Zweites lesebuch; Drittes lesebuch. N. Y., Benziger Bros., 1909. c. 64; 94; 126 p. il. D. cl., v. 1, 13½ c.; v. 2, 16¾ c.; v. 3, 25 c. Readers designed for the use of German-American scholars in Catholic parochial schools.

Devine, E: T: Social forces. N. Y., Charities Publication Committee, 1909. 226 p. 12°, cl., $1.25.

Devine, E: T: Social forces; from the editor's page of The Survey. N. Y., Charities Publication Committee, 1910, [1909.] c. '09. 226 p. D. cl., $1.25.

Mr. Devine is general secretary of the New York Charity Organization Society, Schiff professor of social economy, Columbia University, and editor of The Survey, a periodical devoted to charitable, economic and social betterment. This book is made up of twenty-five articles on vital needs and questions of the day, which have appeared on the editorial page of The Survey.

Dewey, H: B., comp. History of education in Washington; preliminary edition, issued for distribution at the A.-Y.-P. Exposition, 1909. Olympia, Wash., C. L. Boardman, Public Printer, 1909. 68 p. diags., O. pap. (Add. pubs. for price.)

A survey of the school and educational development in the State of Washington from its founding to the present.

De Wulf, Maurice. History of medieval philosophy. 3d ed.; tr. by P. Coffey. N. Y., Longmans, Green & Co., 1909. 12+519 p. O. cl., *$3 net.

Author is professor at the University of Louvain, Belgium. Aim of the book is to place in their proper historical setting the numerous philosophical systems of the Middle Ages and to trace their mutual doctrinal relations. The ancient Grecian philosophies and the medieval are intimately connected, a point which this work clearly shows. Bibliographies at the end of articles. Index.

Dietrich, Gideon. The biology of the sex problem according to the latest facts disclosed by biology and evolution. Chic., Samuel A. Bloch, [1909.] c. 93 p. D. hf. cl., 50 c.

To briefly present some of the most important scientific discoveries relating to this problem of sex is the aim of the author, with a desire to aid present social and ethical attitudes on the question.

D'Indy, Vincent. César Franck; a tr. from the French, with an introd. by Rosa Newmarch. N. Y., John Lane Co., (The Bodley Head,) 1910, [1909.] 286 p. pors. pls. O. cl., *$2.50 net.

César Franck is one of the great composers of France. Born in 1822, he died in 1890, leaving many beautiful pieces of music which are being used more and more in concerts. He himself was a very fine organist and improvised much church music, a great deal of which he wrote down. This biography is by one of his most devoted followers. List of Franck's works (13 p.). Bibliography (2½ p.). Index.

Du Cane, Florence. The flowers and gardens of Madeira; 24 plates in color by Ella Du Cane. N. Y., Macmillan, 1909. 8+150 p. sq. 8°, (Color books ser.) cl., *$2 net.

Dürer, Albrecht. The masterpieces of Dürer, (1471-1528); 60 reproductions of photographs from the original paintings, affording examples of the different characters of the artist's work. N. Y., Frederick A. Stokes Co., [1909.] 66 pages, il. T. (Painters' ser.) leath., *75 c. net; pap., *25 c. net.

Eliot, C. W. The religion of the future. Bost., Ball Publishing Co., 1909. 62 p. D. cl., *50 c. net.

For notice see "Weekly Record," P. W., Nov. 6, 1909, [1230.]

Ellwanger, W. De Lancy. A snuff box full of trees and some apocryphal essays. N. Y., Dodd, Mead & Co., 1909. c. 8°, cl., $2 net.

Emanuel, Walter, pseud. The Dog World and Anti-Cat Review; written and illustrated by dogs for dogs; with the assistance of Walter Emanuel. N. Y., Frederick A. Stokes Co., [1909.] c. 17 p. 8°, pap., 25 c. net.

A clever little book purporting to be a magazine written and illustrated by dogs for dogs.

Eucken, Rudolf Christof. The meaning and value of life. N. Y., Macmillan, 1909. 11+158 p. 12°, cl., *$1.40 net.

Everybody's encyclopedia; editorial staff, C. Higgins, assisted by a large corps of specialists and experts. Chic., De Bower-Chapline Co., [1909.] c. 1367 p. il. col. pls. maps, (partly fold.) diags., 4°, $5.

Issued also under titles "La Salle extension university encyclopedia" and "Webster's universal encyclopedia."

Ewing, Mrs. Juliana Horatia Gatty. Lob Lie-by-the-Fire; or, the luck of Lingborough, and other tales; il. with 8 colored plates by Alice B. Woodward. N. Y., Macmillan, 1909. 189 p. 12°, (Queen's treasure ser.) cl., *$1 net.

Fallow, Lance. An ampler sky. N. Y., Macmillan, 1909. 8+117 p. 12°, cl., *$1 net.

Farnsworth, E. Clarence. The sophistries of Christian science.. Portland, Me., Smith & Sale, 1909. c. 7+121 p. 8°, cl., *1.25.

Finnemore, J. The story of Robinhood and his merry men; 8 full-page color il. by Allan Stewart. N. Y., Macmillan, 1909. 12+274 p. 12°, (Color books for boys and girls.) cl., *$1.50 net.

Fitch, Clyde. A wave of life; a novel. N. Y., Mitchell Kennerley, 1909. c. 292 p. 8°, cl., $1.50.

Fleming, W. F., comp. and ed. Physical culture classics. 4 v. N. Y., Earl Royce Dumont, 18 W. 27th St., [1909.] c. pls. 8°, cl., per set, $15.

Contents: 1, Strength from exercise and diet; 2, Building vitality; 3, Prevention and cure of disease by natural methods; 4, Pertinent statements by the masters.

Fountain (The) of life, to Catholic teachers, by one. N. Y., Longmans, Green & Co., 1909. 51 p. S. pap., *35 c. net.

Short discourse to teachers of the Roman Catholic church to impress upon them the paramount importance of an education which develops the spiritual as well as the natural and teaches the glory of the Christ Life with the necessity of trying to follow it.

Fraser, Georgia. The stone house at Gowanus; scene of the Battle of Long Island; Stirling's headquarters; Cornwallis's redoubt; occupied by Washington; colonial residence of Dutch architecture built by Nicholas Vechte, 1699. N. Y., Witter & Kintner, [503 Fifth Ave.,] 1909. 161 p. pls. pors. O. cl., $2.50.

A clear history giving for the first time in simple form the story of that part of western Long Island which has become thickly settled Brooklyn—Brooklyn of the Park Slope, of the Fifth Avenue elevated way, of the Heights overlooking New York Bay up to the Navy Yard and down to the Atlantic Docks; of all that Brooklyn which the eye from old Gowanus would take in with its sweep. The old stone house, built in 1699, has disappeared, but the willow which stood by its door may still be seen.

Friendly (The) library. In 6 v. N. Y., Macmillan, 1909. 16°, cl., ea., *$1.25 net; per set of 5 v., *$6 net, boxed; leath., ea., *$1.75 net; per set of 6 v., *$10.50 net, boxed.

Contents: The book of Christmas; Hanscome, Elizabeth D., The friendly craft; Lucas, E. V., ed., The gentlest art; The ladies' pageant; Some friends of mine; Martin, E. S., The Wayfarer in New York.

Gainsborough, T. Masterpieces of Gainsborough; 60 reproductions of photographs from the original paintings. N. Y., Frederick A. Stokes Co., 1909. 24°, (Painters' ser.) leath., *75 c. net; pap., *25 c. net.

Galloway, G. The principles of religious development. N. Y., Macmillan, 1909. 20+362 p. 8°, cl., *$3 net.

Gaskell, Mrs. Elizabeth Cleghorn Stevenson. Cranford; plates in color by M. V. Wheelhouse. N. Y., Macmillan, 1909. 238 p. 12°, (Queen's treasures ser.) cl., $1.

Goddard, Pliny Earle. Kato texts. Berkeley, Cal., University of California Press, 1909. 65-238 p. por. Q. (University of California publications; American archaeology and ethnology.) pap., $2.50.

A collection of myths in the Kato language.

with English translations. The Kato Indians are closely connected with the Pomo Indians, and inhabit California in the Mendocino County district.

Goff, Mrs. Rob. Assisi of St. Francis; together with The influence of the Franciscan legend on Italian art, by J. Kerr Lawson; il. with 60 full-page il., nearly all in color, from water color and sepia drawings made for this book by Col. R. Goff, and by reproductions of paintings of the old masters. N. Y., Dodd, Mead & Co., 1909. 8°, cl., *$6 net, boxed.

Goodall, Agnes M. Portugal; il. with 12 full-page color plates by the author. N. Y., Macmillan, 1909. 8+88 p. map, 12°, (Peeps at many lands.) cl., *75 c. net.

Goya y Lucientes, Francisco. Masterpieces of Goya; 60 reproductions of photographs from the original paintings. N. Y., Frederick A. Stokes Co., 1909. 24°, (Painters' ser.) leath., *75 c. net; pap., *25 c. net.

Graves, Alfred Percival. The Irish fairy book. N. Y., Frederick A. Stokes Co., 1909. il. 8°, cl., $1.50.

Green, Helen. Mr. Jackson. N. Y., B. W. Dodge & Co., 1909. c. 299 p. front. 12°, cl., $1.25.

Adventures of John and Mary Smith of Shacklepoe, Iowa, on their first visit to New York. Mr. Jackson, a clever "Raffles," makes things interesting both for the reader and for the Smiths.

Grierson, Elizabeth. Children's tales of English minsters; with 12 full-page il. in color. N. Y., Macmillan, 1909. 16+337 p. 12°, (Color books for boys and girls.) cl., *$2 net.

Griffith, Ja. Bray. Wholesale, commission, and storage accounts; instruction paper. Chic., American School of Correspondence, [1909.] c. 2+78 p. forms, 8°, (American School of Correspondence publications.) 50 c. Contains examination paper.

Griffith, Ja. Bray, and Sweetland, C. A. Trustees', executors', and stock brokers' accounts; instruction paper. Chic., American School of Correspondence, [1909.] c. 2+68 p. forms, 8°, (American School of Correspondence publications.) 50 c. Contains examination paper.

Guiney, Louise Imogen. Happy ending. Bost., Houghton Mifflin Co., 1909. c. 14+177 p. front. O. cl., $3 net, boxed. (500 copies.)

This collection contains selections from Miss Guiney's earlier works, "The white sail," "A roadside harp," "The martyrs idyl," etc., and some new poems which have never appeared in any collection. The book is well printed and bound.

Hagenbeck, Carl. Beasts and men; being Carl Hagenbeck's experiences for half a century among wild animals; an abridged tr. by Hugh S. R. Elliot and A. G. Thacker; with an introd. by P. Chalmers Mitchell, with photogravure portrait of the author and 99 other illustrations. N. Y., Longmans, Green & Co., 1909. 13+299 p. O. cl., *$3.50 net.

Carl Hagenbeck is the greatest collector and trainer of wild beasts in the world. He has been the proprietor of animal shows, has been to the wilds of the earth in search of his beasts and in his Zoological Park, at Stellingen, Germany, has one of the finest menageries of the world. This account of his life and adventures sets forth much interesting information concerning animals.

Hall, Frank Oliver, D.D. Soul and body; a book of sermons preached in the Church of the Divine Paternity, New York City. Bost., University Publishing House, 30 West St., 1909. c. 218 p. S. cl., *$1 net.

Contents: Soul and body; Making a soul; Soul strength; The soul's healing forces; Lost souls; Saved souls; The soul's possessions; The soul's profit and loss; The soul's sincere desire; The soul's durability.

Hancock, Mrs. S. The children of history. [In 2 v. v. 1.] Early times, (B.C. 800 to A.D. 1000;) [v. 2.] Later times, (A.D. 1000 to 1910.) Bost., Little, Brown & Co., [1909.] 193 p. pls. 12°, cl., ea., 50 c. net.

Haverall, Francis R. Bells across the snow. N. Y., Frederick A. Stokes Co., 1909. il. F. pap., 25 c.

Henderson, J. Jamaica; il. with 12 colored plates by A. S. Forest. N. Y., Macmillan, 1909. 7+88 p. map, (Peeps at many lands ser.) cl., *75 c. net.

Hinkson, Mrs. Katharine Tynan, [formerly Katharine Tynan.] Ireland; il. by 12 full-page color plates by Francis S. Walker. N. Y., Macmillan, 1909. 8+88 p. map, 12°, (Peeps at many lands ser.) cl., *75 c. net.

Historical and linguistic studies in literature related to the New Testament; issued under the direction of the Department of Biblical and Patristic Greek; second series, linguistic and exegetical studies; v. 2, pt. 1, Outline of New Testament Christology, by J. Cowper Granbery. Chic., University of Chicago Press, 1909. c. 128 p. 8°, pap., *50 c. net.

Hobhouse, Rev. Walter. The theory and practice of ancient education; being the chancellor's English essay 1885; anastatic reprint of the edition Oxford 1885. N. Y., G. E. Stechert & Co., 1910, [1909.] 55 p. O. bds., *$1 net.

Holt, Hamilton. Commercialism and journalism. Bost., Houghton Mifflin Co., 1909. c. 105 p. D. cl., $1 net.

Public opinion being the force which sways all destiny, personal or democratic, and the editors being given the credit for moulding human opinions, who "moulds" the ideas of the editors? This book is an answer to that question. It shows how dependent a paper is upon its advertisers, and why some subjects are eschewed on this account, irrespective of justice or news.

Homans, Ja. E. Self-propelled vehicles; a practical treatise on the theory, construction, operation, care and management of all forms of automobiles; with upwards of 500 il. and diagrams. [7th ed., rev.] N. Y., Theodore Audel & Co., 1910, [1909.] c. 5+667 p. il. pls. diagrs., 8°, $2.

Hulbert, Archer Butler, comp. and ed. The Crown collection of photographs of American maps, [in the British Museum, London.] In 5 v. v. 4, 5. Cleveland, O., A. H. Clark Co., [1909.] f°, ea., $100.

Hulfish, D. Sherrill. The motion picture, its making and its theater. Chic., Electricity Magazine Corporation, 1909. c. 7-144 p. il. diagrs., 12°, 50 c.

- Masterpieces of handicraft; ed. by T. Leman Hare. N. Y., Dodd, Mead & Co., 1909. il. 16°, cl., ea., *75 c. net.
Contents: Chinese porcelains; Dresden porcelains; Japanese porcelains; Old Bow porcelains; Sèvres porcelains; Wedgewood porcelains.
- Masterpieces of Moorish architecture. N. Y., Frederick A. Stokes Co., 1909. 16°, (Parchement booklets.) pap., 25 c.
- Masterpieces of Spanish architecture. N. Y., Frederick A. Stokes Co., 1909. 16°, (Parchement booklets.) pap., 25 c.
- Meredith, W. H.: Jesse Lee, a Methodist apostle. N. Y., Eaton & Mains, [1909.] c. 128 p. nar. S. cl., *25 c. net.
 This book is one of a series designed to bring the founders of Methodism into the light of the modern church. Jesse Lee was born in Virginia in 1758, his parents were farming people and he was trained to the work of a plantation. He entered the American Army, but for only three months was he with the Revolutionary forces. After this experience he devoted himself to preaching and ministerial work, being the Apostle of American Methodism in the New England states. He died in 1816.
- Mill, J. Stuart. Principles of political economy, with some of their applications to social philosophy; ed., with an introd., by W. J. Ashley. N. Y., Longmans, Green & Co., 1909. 53+1013 p. D. cl., *$1.50 net.
 Text of this edition is that of the seventh (1871), the last revised by Mill himself. Editor is professor of commerce in the University of Birmingham, England. Bibliographical appendix (22 p.). Index.
- Miller, Francis Trevelyan. Hero tales from American life. N. Y., Christian Herald, [1909.] c. 15+454 p. por. pls. 8°, $1.
- Mitton, Geraldine Edith. The book of the railway; with 12 il. in color by Allan Stewart. N. Y., Macmillan, 1909. 9+356 p. 12°, (Color books for boys and girls.) cl., *$2 net.
- Montgomery, Rob. Hiester. Auditing; instruction paper prepared by Robert H. Montgomery. 3 v. Chic., American School of Correspondence, [1909.] c. 8°, (American School of Correspondence pubs.) ea., 50 c.
- Moore, C. Forrest. Moore's history of the States, united and otherwise. Wash., D. C., Neale Publishing Co., 1909. c. 283 p. 12°, cl., $1.50.
- Müller, Johannes. Hindrances of life; tr. by F. F. Strecker. N. Y., Mitchell Kennerley, 1909. c. 302 p. 8°, cl., *$1.50 net.
- Nesbit, Wilbur Dick, ed. The loving cup; original toasts by original folks. Chic., P. F. Volland & Co., 1909. c. 64 p. S. pap., 50 c., boxed.
 Witty toasts by such "original" people as Walter Pultizer, Charles Frederic Goss, Theodosia Garrison, Sir Thomas Lipton, etc.
- New York [State.] Public Service Commission. Supervision of street railways in England and Prussia; reprint from Annual report of the Public Service Commission for the first district of the state of New York for the year ending December 31, 1908. Albany, N. Y., J. B. Lyon Co., 1909. 76 p. 8°. (Add. pubs. for price.)
- Nichol, J.: Tables of European history, literature, science and art; from A.D. 200 to 1909; and of American history, literature and art; revised and brought down to date by W. R. Jack. 5th ed. N. Y., Macmillan, 1909. 90 p. 8°, cl., *$2.25 net.

 Bibliography.

Nicholson, Reynold Alleyne. Elementary Arabic second reading-book. [N. Y., Putnam,] 1909. various paging, D. (Thornton's Arabic ser.) cl., $2.

Author is lecturer in Persian in the University of Cambridge. The selected passages are taken from texts and manuscripts never before edited by any European scholar and arranged chronologically, illustrating the literature, social and religious history of the Arabs. Footnotes and glossary.

Nicoll, Rev. W. Robertson. The expositor's Greek Testament. v. 4. N. Y., Dodd, Mead & Co., 1909. 8°, $7.50.

Nixon-Roulet, Mary F. Our little Hungarian cousin; il. by J. Gosse. Bost., L. C. Page & Co., 1909. c. 138 p. D. (Little cousin ser.) cl., 60 c.

This, the latest addition to the Little cousin series, tells of the life and quaint customs of the many races who live in picturesque Hungary.

Oppenheim, Ja. Monday morning and other poems. N. Y., Sturgis & Walton Co., 1909. c. 9+224 p. S. cl., *$1.25 net.

Poems of the worker and the work-a-day world by the author of "Doctor Rast."

Outcault, R. Felton. Outcault's real Buster and the only Mary Jane. N. Y., Frederick A. Stokes Co., 1909. no paging, il. obl. Q. bds., 60 c.

Palgrave, Francis Turner, ed. A Latin anthology. N. Y., Macmillan, 1909. 12+188 p. 16°, (Golden treasury ser.) cl., *$1 net.

Park, J. Edgar. The wonder of His gracious works; an exposition of the Sermon on the Mount. Bost., Pilgrim Press, [1909.] c. 7+201 p. D. cl., *$1 net.

An exposition of the Sermon on the Mount, which points out that it is still a living guide and help to all people, and brings its teachings down to practical, everyday life.

Pfleiderer, Otto. The development of theology in Germany since Kant. N. Y., Macmillan, 1909. 12+256 p. 8°, cl., *$2.75 net.

Phelps, G. Olcott. One man power, plus. Bost., Roxburgh Publishing Co., Inc., [1909.] c. 224 p. pls. 12°, cl., $1.

Porter, Mrs. Delia Lyman, comp. A year of ideals for every-day living. Bost., Pilgrim Press, [1909.] c. no paging, D. bds., *75 c. net, boxed.

Helpful selections for every day in the year. Attractively bound and printed as a gift-book.

Poulton, E. Bagnall. Charles Darwin and The origin of species; addresses, etc. in America and England in the year of the two anniversaries. N. Y., Longmans, Green & Co., 1909. 16+302 p. O. cl., $3.

Dr. Poulton is Hope professor of zoology, Oxford, and author of "Essays on evolution." This book was published on November 24, 1909, the fiftieth anniversary of the publication of "The origin of species." The development of Darwin's theory, his influence upon scientific thought, the changes in his own mind and their influence upon others are all discussed. Index.

Preyer, D. C. The art of the Metropolitan Museum of New York; giving a descriptive and critical account of its treasures,

- which represent the arts and crafts from remote antiquity to the present time. Bost., L. C. Page & Co., 1909. c. 16+419 p. pls. pors. map, O. cl., \$3, boxed; $\frac{3}{4}$ mor., \$7, boxed.
- Mr. Preyer has here done for the Metropolitan Museum what he did for Holland in "The art of the Netherland galleries." Not only does he describe the paintings, but the other works of art such as tapestries, laces, bronzes, etc., are also critically treated. Index.
- Protestant Episcopal Church Congress of the United States. Papers and speeches of the Church Congress of the United States; Protestant Episcopal, held in Boston, May, '09. N. Y., Thomas Whittaker, Inc., 1909. 188 p. 8°, pap., *$1 net.
- Putney, Albert H. Commercial law. Minneapolis, Minn., Cree Publishing Co., [1909.] c. 5-467 p. 8°, $4.80.
- Putney, Albert H. Corporations; organization, financing, management. Minneapolis, Minn., Cree Publishing Co., [1909.] c. 5-408 p. 8°, $4.80.
- Putney, Albert H. Currency, banking and exchange. Minneapolis, Minn., Cree Publishing Co., [1909.] c. 7-418 p. 8°, $4.80.
- Putnev, Albert H., and Skinner, Hubert Marshall. Principles of political economy, by Albert H. Putney; Sociology, by Hubert M. Skinner. Minneapolis, Minn., Cree Publishing Co., [1909.] c. 5-366 p. 8°, $4.80.
- Read, Carveth. Natural and social morals. N. Y., Macmillan, 1909. 25+314 p. 8°, cl., *$2.75 net.
- Reade, C. The cloister and the hearth. N. Y., Frederick A. Stokes Co., 1909. il. (partly in color) 8°, cl., *$3.50 net.
- Redi, Francesco. Experiments on the generation of insects [by] Francesco Redi, of Arezzo; tr. from the Italian ed. of 1688 by Mab Bigelow. Chic., Open Court Publishing Co., 1909. c. 160 p. il. por. 8°, $2.
- Reeder, Rudolph R. How two hundred children live and learn. N. Y., Charities Publication Committee, 1910, [1909.] c. '09. 247 p. pls. D. cl., $1.25.
- Much of the material in this book first appeared in a series of articles in The Survey under the title "To Country and cottage." Written by the superintendent of the New York Orphan Asylum, Hastings-on-Hudson. The scientific training of these children is systematically treated, as to diet, as to play, industrial and economic training, as to schooling and moral training, ending with a diary of a day.
- Reeve, Sidney Armor. Energy: work, heat and transformations. N. Y., McGraw-Hill Book Co., 1909. 4+7-238 p. diagrs., 8°, $2.
- Reinertsen, Emma May Alexander. ["Mrs. R. C. Reinertsen;"] "Gale Forest," pseud. Five cousins in California; a sunny picture of a sunny land. Bost., C. M. Clark Publishing Co., 1909. c. 287 p. pls. pors. 12°, cl., $1.50.
- Rensen, Ira. An introduction to the study of the compounds of carbon: or, organic chemistry. 5th revision. Bost., Heath, 1909. c. 10+431 p. 12°, cl., $1.20.
- Rendall, Rev. Gerald H. The epistle of St. Paul to the Corinthians. N. Y., Macmillan, 1909. 117 p. 12°, cl., *$1 net.
- Richards, C. Russell. Industrial training. Albany, N. Y., State Dept. of Labor, 1909. 3-6+394 p. 8°, (New York, Bureau of Labor Statistics.) (Add. pubs. for price.)
- Rogers, Julia Ellen. Trees that every child should know; easy tree studies for all seasons of the year; il. by 47 pages of photographs. N. Y., Doubleday, Page & Co., 1909. c. 9+263 p. D. (Every child should know ser.) cl., $1.20 net.
- The child is taught to recognize the trees in such a way that he can tell how he knows them. Romantic tree lore is interwoven with much information concerning the uses of trees, woods and forests. The illustrations will be most useful in helping in the recognition of the trees.
- Rosemary (The) booklets. 5 v. N. Y., Frederick A. Stokes Co., 1909. S. pap., ea., 25 c.
- Contents:* Silent voices; The fine art of kindness; Words fitly spoken; The grasp of friendship; The nobility of work.
- Sand, George, [pseud. for Mme. A. L. A. Dudevant.] Le meunier d'Angibault; ed., with an introd., notes and vocabulary, by J. W. Kuhne. N. Y., American Book Co., [1909.] c. 176 p. por. S. cl., 40 c.
- Editor is instructor in Romance languages, Northwestern University.
- Schultz, Carl Emil, ["Bunny," pseud.] Foxy Grandpa and Little Brother. N. Y., Frederick A. Stokes Co., 1909. c. no paging, obl. Q. il. in color, bds., 60 c.
- Sedgwick, Mrs. Alfred. Germany; il. with 12 colored plates by L. Burleigh Bruhl. N. Y., Macmillan, 1909. 12°, (Peeps at many lands ser.) cl., *75 c. net.
- Sergeant, Philip W. The Empress Josephine. In 2 v. N. Y., Dodd, Mead & Co., 1909. il. 8°, cl., *$6.50 net, boxed.
- Seton, Ernest Thompson. Life-histories of northern animals; an account of the mammals of Manitoba; with 68 maps and 560 drawings by the author. In 2 v. N. Y., Scribner, 1909. c. 600; 600 p. 4°, cl., $18 net.
- Shakespeare, W. The works of William Shakespeare. [Ed. de luxe.] 20 v. N. Y., Bigelow, Smith & Co., [1909.] c. por. pls. 8°, subs., $60.
- Sharpe, Mrs. M. R. L. The golden rule cook book. Bost., Little, Brown & Co., 1909. c. $2.50 net.
- Shaw, T. The management and feeding of cattle. N. Y., Orange Judd Co., 1909. c. 31+461 p. il. 12°, $2.
- Slicer, T. Roberts, D.D. The way to happiness. N. Y., Sturgis & Walton Co., 1909. c. '07. 8+171 p. S. cl., *$1 net.
- Formerly published by Macmillan.
- Smart, G. T.; D.D., ed. The golden bond. Bost., Pilgrim Press, [1909.] c. no paging, nar. D. pap., *35 c. net, in envelope.
- This little book contains the marriage service, a marriage certificate, and various poems dealing with love and marriage printed and bound daintily.
- Smith, Caroline Sprague. Tarry with me and other verses. N. Y., Caroline Sprague Smith, care of Cheltenham Press, 1909. c. 11+186 p. O. cl., $1.50.
- Poems suggested by the passing events of the author's life.

Smith, E. S. The truth about Mexico; [reprinted from The Bankers' Magazine.] N. Y., Bankers' Publishing Co., 1909. no paging, por. O. pap. (Add. pubs. for price.)

An article which appeared in The Bankers' Magazine, November, 1909, and which refutes the charges made in "The barbarous Mexico" articles running serially in the American Magazine.

Smith, Eugène Randolph. Plane geometry developed by the syllabus method. N. Y., American Book Co., [1909.] c. 192 p. D. cl., 75 c.

Author is head of Department of Mathematics, Polytechnic Preparatory School, Brooklyn, N. Y. The book is based on the theory that the proofs of geometry should be, as far as possible, worked out by the pupils, either in class or individually.

Smith, Marion Couthouy. The road of life, and other poems. Seattle, Wash., Alice Harriman Co., 1909. c. 52 p. 12°, cl., $1.

Society for the Promotion of Social Service. The juvenile delinquent and the Young Men's Christian Association; addresses, papers and resolutions of the second annual conference of the Society for the Promotion of Social Service in the Young Men's Christian Association, Chicago, February 12, 13, 1909; with a bibliography on juvenile delinquency. N. Y., International Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association, 1909. c. 75 p. 8°, 50 c.

Sonneck, Oscar G; Theodore, comp. Report on "The star-spangled banner," "Hail Columbia," "America," "Yankee Doodle." Wash., D. C., [United States, Office of the Superintendent of Documents,] 1909. 255 p. double facsim., 4°. (Add. Superintendent for price.)

Literature used for this report (7 p.).

Sophocles. Sophocles; in English verse, by Arthur S. Way. N. Y., Macmillan, 1909. 236 p. 12°, cl., *$1.10 net.

Starr, Laura B. The doll book; il. in color; many half-tones from photographs. N. Y., [Frederick A. Stokes Co.,] 1908, [1909.] c. '08. 12+238 p. O. cl., *$2 net. Formerly published by Outing Publishing Co.

Steele, Matthew Forney. American campaigns. Wash., D. C., [United States, Office of the Superintendent of Documents,] 1909. 8+731 p. atlas of 12 maps, (partly col.) 8°, (United States General Staff publication.) (Add. Superintendent for price.)

Stevenson, Burton Egbert. A child's guide to biography; American—men of action. N. Y., Baker & Taylor Co., 1909. c. 388 p. por. D. (Child's guide ser.) cl., $1.25 net.

The author has been librarian of the Chillicothe, Ohio, Public Library for ten years and during that time has published ten books. The present volume takes up the biographies from Washington to Lincoln; the successors of Lincoln; statesman, pioneers, soldiers and sailors. Index.

Stokes, Adrian. Hungary; painted by Adrian and Marianne Stokes; described by Adrian Stokes. [N. Y., Macmillan,] 1909. 19+320 p. fold. map, O. (Color books ser.) cl., *$6 net.

A work describing a tour through Hungary which covered much ground not usually visited by tourists. In fact, this beautiful and picturesque country has never been taken up by the traveller and exploited as other parts of Europe have. This volume, with its wonderfully fine colored illustrations from paintings by the author's wife, depicting scenery and peasant, will serve as a delightful reminder to those who have seen Hungary, and to others as a stimulus to visit it.

Strong, Rev. J. Seldon. The essential Calvinism. Bost., Pilgrim Press. [1909.] c. 185 p. D. cl., *75 c. net.

Calvinism is something more than a system of theology, setting forth, as it does, a governmental philosophy based on the conception of a personal, sovereign God. This book treats of the contribution of Calvinism to modern thought and its future development.

Sullivan, Ja. E. Schoolyard athletics; giving directions for conducting organized athletic activities in the schoolyard; prepared for the use of teachers, officials and pupils. N. Y., American Sports Publishing Co., [1909.] c. 85 p. il. por. 12°, (Spalding's athletic lib.) pap., 10 c.

Talbot-Tournier, Eugène. La méthode Tournier; an easy graded reading book for beginners in the French language; containing also practical vocabularies, models of letters and an easy system of phonetic pronunciation of the French language. [Worcester, Mass., Belisle Printing & Publishing Co., 1909.] c. 157 p. 24°, cl., $1.25.

Terry, T. Philip. Terry's Mexico: handbook for travellers; with 2 maps and 25 plans. Bost., Houghton Mifflin Co., 1909. c. 240 +595 p. S. cl., $2.50 net.

The volume is modeled after the celebrated Baedeker guide-books, and its 824 pages contain, in a concise and compact form, exhaustive descriptions of Mexico's chief points of interest—its cities, towns, museums, picture-galleries, cathedrals, pyramids, ruined cities, mines, hunting, fishing, and tourist resorts, etc., etc., with ample notes on its literature, language, architecture, painters and paintings, Indian races, volcanoes, railways, and the myriad customs, places, and things which as a composite whole form the unquestioned fascination of the Land of the Montezumas. Gives routes with cheapest and best ways to travel.

Thomson, M. Pearson. Finland: il., with 12 full-page color plates, by Allen Stewart, Alexander Federley, Vernon Stokes and Alan White. N. Y., Macmillan, 1909. 8+88 p. map, 12°, (Peeps at many lands ser.) cl., *75 c. net.

Thomson, Mrs. Priscilla Norton. Not to have and to hold; il. by Hudson. N. Y., Broadway Publishing Co., 1909. c. 292 p. por. pls. 12°, $1.50.

Thucydides. The history of Thucydides; tr. from the ancient Greek by B. Jowett. [Olympic ed.] N. Y., Tandy-Thomas Co., [1909.] c. 3 v., pls. plan, 8°, (Historians of Greece.) $10.50.

Trevena, J. A pixie in petticoats. N. Y., Moffat, Yard & Co., 1909. $1.50.

Tyrell, Rob. Yelverton. Essays on Greek literature. N. Y., Macmillan, 1909. 12+202 p. 12°, cl., *$1.25 net.

Underwood, Clarence F. Girls of to-day; with 23 engravings in colour and 72 in black-and-white by Clarence F. Underwood; with poems by various authors. N. Y., Frederick A. Stokes Co., [1909.] c. '03-'09. no paging, por. Q. cl., $3 net, boxed.

An attractive gift-book containing the first representative collection of Mr. Underwood's pictures Girls out-of-doors, at home, with animals, grave girls, sad girls, sentimental girls, girls of all kinds, in fact, with appropriate poems with many of the pictures, make up the book.

United States. Dept. of the Interior. General Land Office. Opening of Indian reservations. Wash., D. C., [United States, Office of the Superintendent of Documents,] 1909. 5 p. 8°. (Add. Superintendent for price.)

United States. Treasury Dept. Life-saving Service. Directions for restoring the apparently drowned, for saving drowning persons by swimming to their relief and for the treatment of frostbites, as practiced in the United States Life-saving Service. Wash., D. C., [United States, Office of Superintendent of Documents,] 1909. 11 p. il. 8°. (Add. Superintendent for price.)

Velour series. In 12 v. [N. Y., Frederick A. Stokes Co., 1909.] Ff. cl., per set of 6 v., $1.50, boxed.

Contents: 1st ser., A Kempis, Golden texts from The imitation of Christ; Chips from great authors; Golden thoughts from Molinos; Golden thoughts on a holy life; Golden thoughts, words of Jesus, Lindsay; Pickings from a pocket of pebbles; 2d ser., Chips from classical authors; Chips from Dickens; Chips from Thackeray; Chips, witty, humorous and merry thoughts; In memoriam, Tennyson; The lady of the lake.

Waterbury, Leslie Abram. A vest-pocket handbook of mathematics for engineers; with tables. N. Y., John Wiley & Sons, 1909. c. 6+197 p. diags., 24°, cl., $1.50.

Way, L. N. The call of the heart; frontispiece il. by C. Weber Ditzler. N. Y., George W. Dillingham Co., [1909.] c. 9-332 p. 12°, cl., $1.50.

Weiderseim, Grace G. Bobby Blake. N. Y., Frederick A. Stokes Co., 1909. c. no paging, il. F. shaped bds., 50 c.

Weiderseim, Grace G. Dolly Drake. N. Y., Frederick A. Stokes Co., 1909. c. no paging, il. F. shaped bds., 50 c.

These two books are shaped to represent the small hero and heroine and will please children of four and five.

Weiderseim, Grace G. The tiny tots: their adventures. N. Y., Frederick A. Stokes Co., [1909.] c. no paging, il. (partly in color.) Q. bds., 70 c.

Pictures in color and black and white illustrating the everyday adventures of children. The text is simple and printed in large type. Suitable for very small people.

Wells, B. Willis. Modern French literature. Bost., Little, Brown & Co., 1909. c. 10+510 p. 12°, cl., $1 net. First published 1896.

White, W. Allen. The real issue; a book of Kansas stories. N. Y., Macmillan, 1909. c. '96. 212 p. S. cl., $1.25 net. Formerly published by Way & Williams.

White, W. Allen. Strategems and spoils; stories of love and politics. N. Y., Macmillan, 1909. c. '01. 10+291 p. pls. D. cl., $1.25 net. Formerly published by Scribner.

Wilde, Oscar. Pan, a double villanelle, and Desespoir, a sonnet; hitherto unpublished poems. Bost., John W. Luce & Co., 1909. c. 263-268 p. 8°, $1. (30 copies.)

Willard, Walter C. Why the gas engine goes: a practical talk in plain English on gas engines, especially as applied to marine uses. Cleveland, O., Penton Publishing Co., [1909.] c. 10+104 p. il. 12°, 75 c.

Williams, Clara Andrews. The children's theatre; Rip Van Winkle as played by scissors and glue; with drawings by G. Alfred Williams. N. Y., Frederick A. Stokes Co., [1909.] c. no paging, obl. Q. (Glue ser.) bds., $1.

Williams, Clara Andrews. The farm that glue made; il. by G. Alfred Williams. N. Y., Frederick A. Stokes Co., 1909. c. no paging, obl. Q. (Glue ser.) bds., $1.

Williams, Clara Andrews. The games that glue played; il. by G. Alfred Williams. N. Y., Frederick A. Stokes Co., [1909.] c. no paging, obl. Q. (Glue ser.) bds., $1.

Williams, Clara Andrews. The puzzle pictures of animals to cut up and glue; with pictures by G. Alfred Williams. N. Y., Frederick A. Stokes Co., [1909.] c. no paging, obl. Q. (Glue ser.) bds., $1.

Williams, Clara Andrews. The tracing and coloring book of animals; with drawings by G. Alfred Williams. N. Y., Frederick A. Stokes Co., [1909.] c. no paging, obl. Q. (Glue ser.) bds., $1.

Williams, Rev. T. Rhondda. Shall we understand the Bible? Rev. and enl. ed. N. Y., Macmillan, 1909. 8+85 p. 12°, pap., *40 c. net.

Willis, Linn Jepson. A flora of California; to be completed in about 15 pts. pt. 1, Pinaceae to taxaceae; pt. 2, Salicaceae to urticaceae. San Francisco, Cal., Cunningham, Curtiss & Welsh, 1909. 33-64; 337-368 p. 12°, pap., pt. 1, 90 c.; pt. 2, 80 c.

Work, Edgar Whitaker. The house of Chimham. N. Y., American Tract Society, 1909. c. 54 p. il. D. cl., 75 c., boxed.

It relates the story of the House of Chimham, at Bethlehem, from David's time to that of the birth there of the Christ-Child, the long looked-for and hoped-for Guest. A Christmas story bound in white and gold as gift-book.

Wright, H. Burt. The will of God and a man's lifework. N. Y., International Committee of Young Men's Christian Association Press, 1909. c. 12+280 p. 8°, 90 c. Bibliography (2 p.).

Yung Wing. My life in China and America. N. Y., Henry Holt & Co., 1909. c. 6+286 p. por. O. cl., $2 net.

Author is commissioner of the Chinese Educational Commission, associate Chinese minister in Washington, and expectant Tao-Tai of Kiang Su. This frank autobiography chronicles the author's early life in China, his education at Yale, where he won two first prizes in English composition, his return to China and adventures during the Taiping rebellion, his intimate association with such great statesmen as Tsang Kwoh Fan and Li Hung Chang, and finally his able work for the Chinese Educational Movement. Index.

Zelie, J. Sheridan. "Lead, kindly light"; imitations from Cardinal Newman's hymn. N. Y., Dodd, Mead & Co., 1909. c. 6+112 p. 12°, 75 c.

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

One page.....	$25 00
Half page.....	14 00
Quarter page.....	7 00
Eighth page.....	4 00
One-sixteenth page.....	2 00

Rates for preferred positions (full pages only), on application.

The above rates are for unspecified positions. These rates, also, do not include insertions in the "Annual Summary Number," the "Summer Number," the "Educational Number," and the "Christmas Book-shelf," for which higher rates are charged.

Copyright Notices, Special Notices, and other undisplayed advertisements, 10 cents a line of nonpareil type.

RATES OF SUBSCRIPTION.

One year, postage prepaid in the United States. $4.00
 One year, postage prepaid to foreign countries. $5.00
 Single copies, 10 cents; postpaid, 12 cents. Special numbers: Educational Number, in leatherette, 50 cents; Christmas Number, 25 cents. Extra copies of the numbers containing the three and six months' Cumulative Lists, 25 cents each, to subscribers only. The Annual Summary Number is not sold separately.

PUBLICATION OFFICE, 298 BROADWAY, P. O. BOX 943, N. Y.

R. R. BOWKER, Editor and Publisher.

BOOKS WANTED.

In answering, please state edition, condition, and price, including postage or express charges.

Houses that are willing to deal exclusively on a cash-on-delivery basis will find it to their advantage to put after their firm-name the word [Cash.]

Write your wants plainly, and on one side of the sheet only. Illegibly-written "wants" will be considered as not having been received. The "Publishers' Weekly" does not hold itself responsible for errors.

It should be understood that the appearance of advertisements in this column, or elsewhere in the "Publishers' Weekly," does not furnish a guarantee of credit. While it is endeavored to safeguard these columns by withdrawing the privilege of their use from advertisers who are not "good pay" book-sellers should take the usual precautions, as to advertisers not known to them, that they would take in making sales to unknown parties.

W. Abbott, 141 E. 25th St., N. Y.

Science, 1905 or '06, containing article on Tinajas Atlas Region.

Johnston's Hist. Arizona.

Dimsdale's Vigilantes.

Davis, Spanish Conquest of New Mexico.

J. Abrahams, 145 4th Ave., N. Y. [Cash.]

E. M. Woodenard, Bonaparte's Park.

E. M. Woodenard, Bordentown and Environs.

Catalogue of sale of effects of Joseph Bonaparte at Bordentown, New Jersey, 1845; and another for 1848.

American Society of Mechanical Engineers,
 29 W. 39th St., N. Y.

Cash paid for Transactions The American Society of Mechanical Engineers, vol. 9.

Ammon & Mackel, Successors to Leggat Bros.,
 81 Chambers St., N. Y.

Rifle, Rod and Gun, by Van Dyke.

Dictionary of the U. S. History, by J. Franklin Jameson.

Antique Book Store. Toledo, O.

Die sinking, punches and electroplating, anything.

Ovid's Suppressed Works.

Voyages Leading to Establishment of East India Co.

Assoc. Book Co., 4 W. 40th St., N. Y.

Bagot, Casting of the Nets.

Brayley, Londoniana. 1829.

Pugin London, 2d ed., enlarged by Leeds. 1838.

London, Walks Through. 1817.

Britton, Picturesque Antiquities English Cities. 1830.

Starks, Picture of Edinburgh. 1836.

Hearn, Lafcadio, any 1st eds.

Harris, J. C., Daddy Jake.

H. Carey Baird & Co., 810 Walnut St., Phila., Pa.
 Winbrinton, Memoirs of My Own Times. 1816.
 Brannet, Soap and Candles. Baird, 1888.
 Keith, Provincial Councillors.

C. H. Barr, Lancaster, Pa.

Governments of the World To-day, Hamblen Sears.

N. J. Bartlett & Co., 28 Cornhill, Boston.

Bierce's Tales of Soldier and Civilian.

A Voice From St. Helena.

Maetzner's English Grammar, trans.

Bobb's-Merrill Bookstore, W. K. Stewart Co.,
 Indianapolis, Ind.

Schiefner's Kalevala, German text.

Lewis and Clark Journal, vol. 7.

Sully's Memoirs, 4 vols.

History of Tippecanoe County, Ohio.

The Love Story of David Stone, by Edwin Carlisle Litsey.

Lecky's History of England in the 18th Century.

The Bostonian.

Bonnell, Silver & Co., 48 W. 22d St., N. Y.

Annals of a Parish, Galt.

Bridgman & Lyman, 108 Main St., Northampton,

Mass.

C. A. Gaskell's Family and Business Atlas of the World, cl. Pub. by U. S. Pub. House, Chicago.
 Give date of population by census.

Edmund D. Brooks, 89 Tenth St., South, Minneapolis, Minn.

That Good Old Time, or Our Fresh and Salt Water Tutors.

W. A. Callanan, 346 Broadway, N. Y. [Cash.]

Life Insurance Reports, all States; also books or pamphlets on life insurance. Write for list.

C. N. Caspar Co., 431 E. Water St., Milwaukee, Wis.

Lamartine, Pilgrimage to the Holy Land.

Schoolcraft, Indians, vol. 6 separately.

Hargrave Jennings, Phallicism.

W. G. Chapman, 84 La Salle St., Chicago, Ill.

Singing Mouse Stories, by Emerson Hough.

Chicago Book Mart, 606 Lakeside Bldg.,
 Chicago, Ill.

Voltaire's Philosophical Dict., in English.

Chico Book Store, Chico, Cal.

2 copies of Century Magazine, April, 1891.

The A. H. Clark Co, Caxton Bldg., Cleveland, O.

Du Bose, Life of Wm. L. Yancey.

Majors, Seventy Years on the Frontier.

McReynolds, Thirty Years on the Frontier.

Overland Monthly, April, 1885.

Patriot (The), vol. 1, no. 11, Feb., 1899.

Wilkes' U. S. Exploring Expedition.

Hale, Kansas and Nebraska.

W. B. Clarke Co., 26 Tremont St., Boston, Mass.

Great Treason.

Mrs. Limber's Raffle, 2 copies wanted.

New Mistress at Brookfield.

Pickle and His Page Boy.

Wise Saws.

Fire of 1872, Letters on.

Five Great Painters, by Eastlake.

Britton and Brown, Illustrated Flora, 1st ed. only.

Pub. about 1898.

Columbia University Book Store, 117th St. and

Broadway, N. Y.

Keener, Cases on Contracts, vol. 2.

Collins, Hauser & Co., 623 13th St., N. W., Washington, D. C. [Cash.]

Brandes, Geo., William Shakespeare, a Critical Study,

2 vols.

Co-operative Press, Charlotte, N. C. [Cash.]

Century Dictionary, any, as new.

Unitarian, New Testament.

Salem Witchcraft, by Upham.

The Georgian, by Geo. Gilmer.

Bulwer-Lytton, any thin paper ed.

Nelson Indian Paper Editions, Persian leath.

Thomas Hardy's Works, cheap ed.

M. Ourlander, Baltimore, Md.

Hening's Va. Statutes, 13 vols.

The Cut Rate Book Co., 20 E. 7th St., Cincinnati, O.

MacKenzie's Last Fight With the Cheyennes.

BOOKS WANTED.—Continued.

- Dawson's Book Shop, 518 So. Hill St., Los Angeles, Cal.
Archæological Writings of Sanhedrin and Talmuds of the Jews.
U. S. Geol. Bulletin, no. 60.
Tourgeat, A. Figs and Thistles; anything by Nordhoff, Peninsular California.
McClure's, vols. 1 to 5, 7 to 10.
World's Work, vols. 1 to 6.
Review of Reviews, vols. 1 to 6.
Cotton Mather's Magnalia, 1855 ed.
California, Arizona and So. Western Books wanted.
- Dixie Book Shop, 41 Liberty St., N. Y.
[Cash.]
Morse Family Genealogy, last ed.
Marsh Family Genealogy.
Poor's Manual, 1868-9.
- Chas. H. Dressel, 559 Broad St., Newark, N. J.
[Cash.]
Half-Hours With Great Humorists, by Chas. Lamb and others. Donahoe, Henneberry & Co., Chicago.
Maxwell's Chemical Work, in English or German. Pub. 1840 or 1850.
- E. P. Dutton & Co., 31 W. 23d St., N. Y.
Edwards' Great West. 1858.
One Hundred Chess Problems.
Anagrams, Ancient and Modern.
- Eau Claire Book and Stationery Co., Eau Claire, Wis.
Nature of Light, Lommel.
Daily Training. Benson & Miles.
Geo. Engelke, 855 N. Clark St., Chicago, Ill.
Diaz, Czar of Mexico, 2 copies.
Poore, B. P., Federal and State Constitution. 1877.
Parker Hoswell's Biology, last ed.
Roscoe and Schorlemmer, Chemistry, vol. 1. 1907.
Schnabel, Handbook of Metallurgy, vol. 1, last ed.
Bayley's, Fl. M., Record of Western U. S.
Appleton's Amer. Biography, 7 vols., sheep.
- C. P. Farrell, 117 E. 21st St., N. Y.
2 copies of Ernest Poole's Child Labor, good condition.
- Forbes Library, Northampton, Mass.
Hugeland, C. W., The Art of Prolonging Life, ed. by E. Wilson. Portland, Oregon, 1879, Lindsay.
Fowler Bros., 543 So. B'way, Los Angeles, Cal.
Thinklincs of Northern Alaska. Knapp & Childs.
- Franklin Book Shop, 125 E. 59th St., N. Y.
[Cash.]
Paul Neideck's Works, trans. into English; any thing.
Agnes Laut, Conquest of the Northwest.
A. P. Low, Cruise of the Neptune.
Service, Spell of the Yukon.
Commodore E. Peary, anything by.
- Franklin Bookshop, (S. N. Rhoads,) 920 Walnut St., Phila., Pa.
Mushach Browning's 44 Years Hunting, by Stabler.
Boller's Among Indian. Phila., 1868.
U. S. Entomol. Commission, vol. 5.
Britton and Brown's Flora, 3 vols. 1896.
Ridgway, Birds of N. and M. America, v. 1, 2, 3.
Entomological Commission, report, v. 1.
Brimley Catalogue, pt. 1.
Insect Life, vol. 7, pt. 4.
Smith's Rocks, Stocks and Minerals.
- Ginn & Co., Boston, Mass.
Adin Ballou's Christian Non-Resistance. Pub. in 1846.
Goodspeed's Book Shop, 5a Park St., Boston, Mass.
Bullen, Sack of Shakings.
Bullen, Whaleman's Wife.
Bullen, Deep Sea Plunderings.
Alcott, Little Women, Special illus. ed.
Jewett, Pilgrim.
- Sloane Gordon, 400 W. 118th st., N. Y.
A Political Crime, by Gibson.
- W. A. Gramer, City Hall, N. Y.
O. Henry, The Four Million, 1st ed.
Cable, John Marsh, Southerner, 1st ed. 1894.
Burroughs, Wake Robin, 1st eds. 1871 and '77.
Twain, Adventures of Tom Sawyer, 1876; Old Times on the Mississippi, 1876, 1st eds.
- Harvard Co-operative Society, Cambridge, Mass.
Lahee, Operas, Their Writers and Plots. Lippincott.
Muehler, Symbolism, Eng. trans.
Book of Common Worship. Putnam.
- Rudolf Haupt, 156 5th Ave., N. Y.
Am. Journal of Semitic Languages, vols. 1-14, 20, and following.
Am. Veterinary Review.
Hart, A. B., The American Nation, 28 vols.
Journal of Biblical Literature, New York, 1881 and following.
Journal of Geology, ed. by Chamberlain and Salisbury, vols. 1-6, Chicago, 1893-'98.
Journal of Infectious Diseases.
Hirschfeld Bros., Lim., 13 Furnival St., Holborn, London, E. C., Eng.
Transactions of the American Orthopedic Assoc., vols. 4 and 5.
- Paul B. Hoeber, 69 E. 59th St., N. Y.
Jacobi, Therapeutics, Infancy and Childhood.
Holbrook, Parturition.
Index Catalogue of Surgeon-General's Office, 1886, 1897, 1903.
- Holmes Book Co., 1158 Market St., San Francisco, Cal.
Review of Reviews, 1st 23 nos.
Annals of San Francisco.
Pomeroy's Municipal Law.
California Statutes.
Flynn's Irrigation.
- W. S. Houghton, 64 New Park St., W. Lynn, Mass.
Am. Historical Review, lot.
Christian Science Journal, vol. 12.
Littell's, nos. 2916 to 3156.
N. A. Review, year 1838.
St. Nicholas, early vols.
- The Hub Magazine Co., 110 Tremont St., Boston.
Educational Review, Oct., 1892; Sept., 1900; Nov., 1901.
Cosmopolitan, Nov., Dec., 1888.
Review of Reviews, April to Aug., 1891.
- Humphrey's Book Store, 21 Bromfield St., Boston.
Cooper's Deerslayer, Last of Mohicans, Heidenmauer, Redskins, Miles Wallingford, Gregory, Townsend ed., Darley plates.
- Huston's Book Store, Rockland, Me.
Index to Trade List Annual. $2.
- Illinois Book Exchange, 407 Lakeside Building, Chicago, Ill.
Advance and Retreat, by Gen. J. B. Hood. 1880.
Memoirs of General J. B. Hood.
Hall N. Jackson, 719 Vine St., Cincinnati, O.
History of the Daguerreotype Process of about 1855.
- U. P. James, 127 W. 7th St., Cincinnati, O.
Bierce, In the Midst of Life.
- William R. Jenkins Co., 851 6th Ave., N. Y.
Arena Magazine, Aug., 1908.
System Magazine, Jan., Feb., April, vol. 7, 1905.
Ancestors of John and Elinor Whitney, the Whitney Genealogy, by Melville, in 1 vol. Pub. by De Vinne about 1890.
Journal of an African Cruiser, by Hawthorne and Bridge, cheap reprint.
Life of Charles Devens of Boston, Mass.
- Jennings & Graham, 220 W. 4th St., Cincinnati, O.
Harper's ed. of Theology, 4 vols., Timothy Dwight.
- E. W. Johnson, 121 E. 23d St., N. Y.
Social Life of the Chinese, Doolittle.
Tuckerman's Personal Reminiscences.
Herculaneum et Pompeii, 8 vols. Paris, 1861.
- The Edward P. Judd Co., New Haven, Conn.
[Cash.]
Adot, America and the Americans; Life's Fairy Tales.
King's Old Book Store, 891 Golden Gate Ave., San Francisco, Cal.
- Davenport's Cartoons.
Cooke, Satan in Society.
Dyer, Great Men at Play, vol. 2.
Forney, Anecdotes of Public Men, vol. 1.
Chinese Calendars.
- Knickerbocker Book Shop, 43 W. 34th St., N. Y.
Audubon and Bachman, Quadrupeds of North America, pt. 30.
Lintner's 7th and 13th Reports.
Garden and Forest, vol. 5, no. 253 and index; vol. 6, nos. 256, 259, 304, 305; vol. 7, nos. 309, 310, 311, 313, 317, 318, 322, 323, 335, 348, 349; also all of vols. 8, 9, 10, 11, 12.
Garden and Forest, complete set.

BOOKS WANTED.—Continued.

Knickerbocker Book Shop.—Continued.

Parker, T. J., and Harwell, W. A., Text-Book of Zoology, 2 vols.
The Auk, vols. 1 to 10.
 Wood's Natural History, 3 vols.

Latin-America Book Co., 203 Front St., N. Y.

Pike, Exp. to Source of Miss. 1819.
 Bonner, Life, etc., of J. P. Beckworth. 1856.
 Rever, Tour of Duty in California. 1849.
 Robinson, California and Its Gold. 1849.
 Monette, Dis. and Settlement of Miss. 1848.
 Morphis, Hist. of Texas. 1875.
 Probus, Texan Revolution, pamphlet.
 McCalla, Adv. in Texas.
 Farnham, Travels in Gt. West. Prairies.
 Davis, Col. G., Autobiography of. 1891.
 Moody, Mex. War. 1848.
 Linn, 50 Years in Texas. 1883.
 Stapp, Prisoners of Perote. 1845.
 Arnold, Priced Catalogue, 1st eds.
 Arnold, His "Record" Showing Prices He Paid and Amounts Realized at Auction.
 Schoolcraft, Infor. Resp. the Indians of U. S. Phila., 1853.
 Catlin, Indians, 160 colored plates. 1848.
 French, Priced Catalogue, 1st eds.

Frank H. Lattin, Albion, N. Y.

Bird Lore, vol. 2, no. 2; vol. 3, no. 1; vol. 7, no. 1.
 Can also use Auks; Bendire's Life Histories; N. A. Birds; U. S. National Museum Reports, Bulletins or Proceedings; Ornithological books and publications of any kind in any quantity, if cheap.

Charles E. Lauriat Co., 385 Washington St., Boston.

Magnetism, Holley.
 Twenty Years in Siberia, De Packh.
 What We Know About Shakespeare, C. H. Dall.

Library of Congress, Washington, D. C.

Van Buren, Martin, Address to the Republican Members of the Legislature, by One of Their Colleagues in Favor of the Appointment of Rufus King to the Senate of the U. S.
 Johnson, H. R. W., Independence of Liberia. N. Y., 1882.

Little, Brown & Co., 34 Beacon St., Boston.

Four Georges, with Thackeray's illus.
 Long, Long Indian Days, Marios.

Lock Box 256, Archbald, Pa.

Vol. 1 of John Adams' Works, or Life of C. F. Adams in single vol.
 Rowland's Life of Charles Carroll of Carrollton.
 Letters of Charles Carroll of Carrollton.
 Diary of George Washington, 1789-1791.
 Canadian Journal of Charles Carroll of Carrollton.

McDevitt-Wilson, 30 Church St., N. Y.

Hervey's Masters of French Music.
 Wingate's Shakespeare's Heroes on the Stage.
 Wingate's Shakespeare's Heroines.
 Raymond's Among the Lindens.
 Bond's English Cathedrals.
 Max Roose's Dutch Painters of 19th Century, 4 vols.

Isaac Mendoza, 17 Ann St., N. Y. [Cash.]

Stoddard, The Volcano Under the City.
 Bullen, Speculum Amantis.

Miller's Bookstore, Atlanta, Ga.

Layman's Breviary, by Scheffer.

Edward Mills, 607 Chestnut St., St. Louis, Mo.

Anything on or by H. W. Grady.
 Vol. 3 of the International ed. of Shakspeare.

William H. Miner, Cedar Rapids, Ia.

Butterfield's Gettysburg.
 Schoolcraft, Indians, 6 vol. ed.
 Brann, (ed. of Iconoclast) Works, etc., 2 vols.
 Edwards, Life of Quantrell.
 Lossing's Pictorial Hist. of U. S.
 Percival's Poems.
 Montgomery's Poems.
 Willis, Amer. Scenery.

Moroney's Book Sales, 404 Central Ave., Cin., O.

Promus, by Bacon.
 Mackey's Ency. of Masonry.
 Preston's Masonry.

N. F. Morrison, 314 W. Jersey St., Elizabeth, N. J.

Lippincott's Gazetteer, 1905 or later.
Sterling Genealogy, 2 vols., Trade ed.
 Cuyler, 365 Stray Leaves Under Catalpa.
 New Shakespeare Society, 2d Ser.

C. S. Murdock, Medina, N. Y.

Literary Digest, Oct. 31, 1908.
Atlantic Monthly, vol. 54 and 67, complete.
St. Nicholas, Nov., '07; Sept., '09.
Technical World, March, '06.
World's Work, Nov., '01; Jan., '07.

John J. Newbegin, 315 Sutter St., San Francisco, Cal.

Stoddard's Lectures, full mor. Must be as new.
Century Dictionary, 3/4 mor., 10 vols., as new.
 An Englishman in Paris.

N. Y. Medical Book Co., 45 E. 42d St., N. Y.

Buchanan, Therapeutic Sarcognomy. Boston, 1884.

W. W. Nisbet, 12 S. Broadway, St. Louis, Mo.

English into French, Francis S. Williams.
 Books on poker, Florence or Skenck.

O'Shea's Book Store, 109 E. 59th St., N. Y.

Diary and Letters of Thomas Hutchinson, vol. 1, green cl.

E. H. Otting, Warren, O.

Ibsen's Works.
 Oscar Wilde's Works.

W. Millard Palmer Co., 20 Monroe St., Grand Rapids, Mich.

Frank Sewell, Moody Mike.

Philadelphia Book Co., 17 S. 9th St., Phila., Pa.

Fritz's Photo-Lithography.

Philadelphia Magazine Depot, 326 N. 10th St., Phila., Pa.

Philosophical Transactions of Royal Society of London, vol. 3, 4to, boards, uncut. Will pay $3.
Annals of Am. Academy, Phila., vol. 1, Supplements, 1890-'91; vol. 12, no. 3; vol. 21, Supplement; vol. 29, no. 3.
Am. Hist. Review, Oct., 1897; July, 1906.
Am. Naturalist, 1900 to date, or odd nos.
Am. Machinist, vol. 12, nos. 1, 9, 30.

Pierce & Zahn, 633 17th St., Denver, Colo.

Maxwell, Terminologia Medica Polyglotta.

Presbyterian Board of Pub., 328 Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Dale's Nine Lectures on Preaching.
 Tauler's Sermons.

Presbyterian Board of Pub. and S. S. Work, 505 N. 7th St., St. Louis, Mo.

Ridpath's History of the World, in 9 vols., good clean set.

Presbyterian Book Store, Fulton Building, Pittsburg, Pa.

Psychological Review, Sept., 1894.
Science Monthly, March 1, 1907.
 McClintock and Strong's Biblical Encyclopedia.

C. J. Price, 1126 Walnut St., Phila., Pa.

Grose's Classical Dictionary of the Vulgar Tongue.
 British Poets, Chiswick ed., with 150 copper plates, 100 vols., 12mo. Chiswick, 1822.

Public Library, San Francisco, Cal.

Kemble, F. A., Records of a Girlhood. Holt.
 Gorringer, H. H., Egyptian Obelisks. 1885.

Raymer's Old Book Store, Seattle, Wash.

Uncle Lieb and Other Farm Ballads.

Peter Reilly, 133 N. 13th St., Phila., Pa.

Unity of Nature, Duke of Argyl.

C. L. Ricketts, 1st Nat'l Bank Bldg., Chicago, Ill. [Cash.]

Wanted reports on Books on penmanship, alphabets, fragments of mss. and facsimile reproductions of mss.

St. Paul Book and Stationery Co., St. Paul, Minn. Uprising of the Many.

The St. Louis News Co., 1008 Locust St., St. Louis, Mo.

Chambers, Book of Days.

BOOKS WANTED.—Continued.

Theo. E. Schulte, 132 E. 23d St., N. Y.

Set of Works of Jonathan Edwards.
 Lecky's History of European Morals.
 Incas, anything on history of Greenaway, Under the Window.
 Sanders, Young Loder's Reader.
 Reading Without Tears.

A. G. Sellar, 1224 Amsterdam Ave., N. Y.

Pearson, Karl, Chances of Death.

John V. Sheehan & Co., 178 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich.

Lazareth, Cleves.

Shepard Book Co., Salt Lake City, Utah.

Victor's River of the West.
 Cooke's Scenes and Adventures in U. S. Army.
 Cooke's Conquest of New Mexico and California.

R. E. Sherwood, 48 Maiden Lane, N. Y.

Harlem, City of N. Y., Murry Hoffman, Esq., 2 vol.
 ed. Jones & Co.
 Great Orations of Henry Ward Beecher.
 Pencer's Analytic Grammar.
 Greeley's American Conflict, vol. 1.
 Helper's Impending Crisis.
 Cy Clegg and His Pard.

John Skinner, 44 N. Pearl St., Albany, N. Y.

Sir William Johnson. Stone.
 American shooting, anything on.

Geo. D. Smith, 48 Wall St., N. Y.

Prudhon's Works, in English, by Tucker.
 Weird Women.
 Cincinnati Society, old items.
 Heptameron, 1 vol., fine ed. only.
 Willems, Les Elzeviers.
 Sevigne's Letters, fine English, one vol. ed.
 In Memoriam: Thomas Starr King, 1864.
 Rousseau's Confessions, good ed.
 Jane Austen's Works, 1st eds.
 Life of W. L. Yancy of Alabama.
 Ships From Old Salem.
 Italian Journeys, by W. D. Howells. 1867.
 Shelleyana.
 Beranger's Free Songs.
 Valentine's Manual, 1845-6, imperfect copy.
 Scraps, by D. C. Johnson, any parts. Phila., 1832.

J. R. Smith & Co., 22 E. 21st St., N. Y.

Ridpath's History of the World.
 Anthony Trollope, Gebbie ed.
 Mark Twain, limited ed.
 Ainsworth, or George Sand, Japan paper ed.
 Any of Houghton Mifflin's or Scribner's limited eds.
 Quote best cash prices.

Smith's Book Store, 805 N. Howard St., Baltimore, Md.

Sayce, Records of the Past.
 Stanton, The Women's Bible, 2 vols.
 Dictionary of National Biography, ed. by Stephens and Lee.
 Hamerton, Etchings and Etchers.
 Barker, Nervous System.

A. H. Smythe, 43 S. High St., Columbus, O.

Before the Sepoy Mutiny, from Ancient Times to Annexation of Punjab. Bohn.
 Hist. Saracens and Conquest Syria. Bohn.
 Sir William Johnson, Stone.

Statute Law Book Co., Colo. Bldg., Washington, D.C.

N. C. Stats. Revisal, 1821-'24. Taylor, 1827.
 R. I. Public Laws, 1814-'17.
 Texas Acts, 1895, Special; 1899, Special; 1901, Special Reg. Sess.
 Va. Stats. Suppl., 1898.

G. E. Stechert & Co., 129 W. 20th St., N. Y.

Astrophysical Journal, set or vols.
 Schoenhof, History of Money and Prices.
 Gibson, Stock Exchanges. Putnam.
 Apples of New York.
 Hill, History of Amer. Shipping.
 Adams, Chapters of Erie. Holt.
 Reye, Geometry of Position. Macmillan.
 Hurd, Freedom and Bondage in U. S., 2 vols.
 Greely, American Weather. Dodd.
 Wenckstern, Bibliography of Japan.
 Caruthers, Life of Rev. David Caldwell.
 Foote, Sketch of North Carolina.
 Dickinson, J., Writings, ed. Ford, 2 vols.
 Iredell, Life and Correspondence.
 Moulton, Memoirs of Am. Revolution.

G. E. Stechert & Co.—Continued.

Pioneer History of Ohio Valley.
 Stovall, Robert Toombs. Cassell.
 Jones, Idylls of the King. Lippincott.
 Moulton, Arthur O'Shaughnessy. Stone & K.
 Mullany, Spiritual Sense of In Memoriam.
 Stowe, Lady Byron Vindicated.
 Atkinson, History of Newark, N. J.
 Ryerson, Loyalists of America, 2 vols. Toronto.
 Whitehead, Early Hist. of Perth Amboy.
 Arnold, History of Rhode Island, 2 vols.
 Life of John Jay, 2 vols. 1833.
 Maury, Memoirs of Huguenot Family.
 Smith, History of Province of N. Y., 2 vols.
 Sparks, Library of Amer. Biography.
 Thomas, History of Printing.

J. F. Taylor & Co., 18 E. 17th St., N. Y.

Autograph letters of Charles Lever.

William J. Taylor, 59 Broad St., N. Y.

Hungary and Louis Kossuth, anything.
 Potter's Æschylus, vol. 1. 1809.
 Index Expurgatorius. Martial, 1868.
 Underwood ed. of Mark Twain.
 Byron, Niccols, 16 vols.

Taylor's Book Shop, 3518 Franklin Ave., St.
 Louis, Mo.

Candy Making, anything.
 Joel Chandler Harris, anything.
 Hovey or Carman, anything.
 Cities of Spain, Hutton.
 Poems of Alfred Noyes, anything.

Toronto Antiquarian Book Co., 5 Jordan St., Toronto, Canada. [Cash.]

Flamsteed's Star Catalogue.
 Forlong's River of Life.
 Inman's Ancient Faiths.
 Higgins' Analysis.
 Story of the Stick.

Otto Ulbrich Co., 386 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Dance of Society, by De Garmo.

The United Presb Bd. of Pub., Pittsburg, Pa.

Ocean Sketches, by Wendt.
 On the Glory of Winslow.
 All About Jesus, Dixon.

Library of the Univ. of N. C., Chapel Hill, N. C.
Bulletin of the Torrey Botanical Club, vols. 14, 17, 19, 22.

Journal of the New York Botanical Garden, vols. 1-5.
Bryologist (The), vols. 1-6.
Plant World, vols. 1-6.
Botanical Gazette, vols. 1-8, 11.
 Laws of 1865-'66 of Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia,
 Florida, Tennessee, South Carolina, Louisiana, Mississippi, Virginia, Texas, Kentucky.
Confederate Veteran, vol. 1, no. 1; vol. 3 complete.
Niles' Weekly Register, vols. 51-76.
 McPherson, History of Reconstruction.

Univ. of Oregon Library, Eugene, Ore.

Brown, Alex., Genesis of the U. S.
 Twiss, Travers, Oregon Territory, Its History and Discovery.
 Warren, Homer's Abode of the Dead.
 Warren, Homer's Abode of the Living.

D. Van Nostrand Co., 23 Murray St., N. Y.

Drescher's Chemical Reactions.
 Preble's History of the Amer. Flag.
 Thompson's Thomas Reis, the Inventor of the Telephone.

Walker & Stonestreet, 500 5th Ave., N. Y.

Gardiner's History of England, vols. 1 and 2.
 Browning, Bells and Pomegranates, in the original parts.
 Sacred and Legendary Art, by Mrs. Jameson, vol. 1 only. Lond., 1866.
 Aldine Poets, 53 vols.

John Wanamaker, New York.

Tales of Mean Streets, by Morrison.
 The Rise and Fall of the Moustache, R. J. Burdette.

John Wanamaker, Philadelphia.

Blue Lagoon, by Stackpoole.
 Story of Two Noble Lives, by Hare.
 Work, Wm. Henry Thorn, vol. 2.
 Hegel's Philosophy of Right, by Dydes.

The Watkins Co., 54 W. 39th St., N. Y.

The Wild Night, by Chesterton.
 Wilson's Shadow of the Trees.

BOOKS WANTED.—Continued.

Weinstock, Lubin & Co., Sacramento, Cal.
Frescoes, by Ouida (Louise de la Ramée).

Edgar A. Werner, 35 Chestnut St., Albany, N. Y.
Handbook of Democracy, 1863-'64.
Sherburne, Life of Paul Jones.
O'Callaghan, Laws and Ordinances of New Netherland, 8vo, law sheep.
Wright, Mass. Insurance Reports, 1859-'65, 1 vol.

William Wesley & Son, 28 Essex St., Strand, London, Eng.

Bull. Amer. Museum Nat. Hist., vol. 17, pt. 3.
The Wheeler Pub. Co., 210 Colburn Bldg., Denver, Colo. [Cash.]

Roorbach, Bibliotheca Americana, vol. 4, March, 1858-Jan., 1861.

Whitney & Grimwood, Colorado Springs, Colo.
Sandwich Islands and Notes, by Haale.
An Account of the Polynesian Race, by Fornander.
London.

Arthur C. Wilkins, 207 W. 23d St., N. Y.
Hope Leslie, or Early Times in Mass.
Barre, History of French Consulate.
Thoreau, Walden. 1854.
Kennedy, J. S., Battle of Waterloo.
Larvey, Baron, Memoirs of.

J. H. Williams, Rondout, N. Y. [Cash.]
Harper's Weekly, 1861-'65.
Sanders' Third Reader, 1848 ed.
Federalist, 1802 ed., vol. 2.
Valentine's Hist. of N. Y.

Max Williams, 1 W. 38th St., N. Y.
Wanted for cash views of old New York, manuals, etc.

A. N. Wilson, 7 N. Alabama St., Indianapolis,
[Cash.]

The Possibility of Living 200 Years, compiled by
F. O. Havens. San Francisco, 1896.

J. O. Wright & Co., 6 E. 42d St., N. Y.
Tallentyre, Voltaire.
Godman, Rambles of a Naturalist.
Godman Memoir, by Sewall.

BOOKS FOR SALE.

Geo. H. Colby & Co., 22 Main St., Lancaster, N. H.
500 bound volumes English Reviews and an equal number bound books in different foreign languages for a song.

E. H. Otting, Warren, O.
Appleton's Annuals, 1861-'97, 2, Index, 39 vols., slip, fnc. $20.

John Skinner, 44 N. Pearl St., Albany, N. Y.
Cartier, Jacques, His Voyages, by James Phinney
Baxter. N. Y., 1906. Pub. at $10 net. $4.50.
C. J. Price, 1126 Walnut St., Phila., Pa.

A few Book Rarities:
Physiognomical Portraits, 100 Distinguished Characters from Undoubted Originals, Engraved in Line by the most Eminent British Artists. Largest Paper Proofs, 2 vols., folio, original boards, uncut.
London, 1824. Very few copies were issued in this superior style. $60.

Rogers' Poems and Italy. The very beautiful Large and Thick Paper Edition, with the Vignette after Turner and Stothard, printed separately from the Text. Beautiful impressions, 2 vols., 4to, original dark green morocco, by Hayday. London, 1838. $35.

Pennant's Journey from Chester to London, with full account of the various Noblemen's Seats and Objects of Interest. Extra illustrated with 117 fine Portraits and Views, carefully inserted, 2 vols., royal 8vo, purple morocco, gilt tops. London, 1811. $22.50.

Portraits. Physiognomical Portraits. 100 distinguished characters from undoubted originals. Engraved in line by the most eminent British artists.
Choice original impressions on large paper. Proofs.
2 vols. Imperial folio, boards, uncut. London, 1824. $60.

—Portraits of Eminent French Men and Women of the time of Louis XIV. 50 beautifully engraved Portraits from Miniatures by Petitot, the Court

BOOKS FOR SALE.—Continued.

C. J. Price.—Continued.

Artist of the time. On large paper. 2 vols., 4to, cloth, gilt edges. Paris, n. d. The originals are the property of the French Government and are preserved in the Louvre. $20.

Japan. Japanese Album. A Collection of 24 large Photographs of Japanese Scenery, etc. Beautifully colored by Native Artists, carefully mounted in the margins of each decorated with birds and flowers, in water-colors. 1 vol. Oblong folio, bound in silk brocade. Yokohama, n. d. A beautiful specimen of Japanese Art. $30.

Johnsoniana. Graphic Illustrations of the Life and Times of Samuel Johnson. 24 fine Steel Plates of Portraits and Views, with descriptive Letterpress. Original edition. Large Paper, 4to, half morocco extra, gilt top. London, 1836. Very rare in this superb condition. $25.

HELP WANTED

HEAD PACKER in book publishing business.
Wanted a thoroughly competent and experienced man to take charge of packing and shipping. Address
B. A., care of PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY, New York.

WANTED.—An experienced cataloguer with good knowledge of rare books. Good chance for competent man. BOOKSELLER, care of PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY,
New York.

WANTED.—An experienced salesman familiar with new and old books. Permanent position for right man. BOOKSTORE care of PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY, New York.

SITUATIONS WANTED.

WANTED.—Situation as traveller for publishing house; five years' experience on road. Best of references. Address G., care of PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY,
New York.

MANUFACTURING MAN! At your service for twenty-four dollars a week. Half of my forty years has been spent in a practical working out of the numerous details of the publishing business. This individual who knows, will honestly and faithfully carry out your every desire with promptness, economy and satisfaction. In shape to start work at once.
Address WILLING WORKER, care of PUBLISHERS'
WEEKLY, New York.

BUSINESS FOR SALE.

BOOKSTORE, old established business; big stock; cheap rent. Will sell for $1000 or less by keeping some stock. Address MORONEY'S BOOK SALES, 404
Central Ave., Cincinnati, O. Spot Cash.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

AMERICAN Magazine Exchange, St. Louis, Mo.

THEOLOGICAL BOOKS. SCHULTE, 132 E. 23d
St., New York.

BACK NUMBERS OF MAGAZINES supplied by HENRI GERARD, 83 Nassau St., New York.

THE BOSTON BOOK COMPANY, Boston, Mass.
Complete files and back volumes of magazines.

BACK vols. and nos. of magazines supplied. PHILA-DELPHIA MAGAZINE DEPOT, 326 N. 10th St., Phila., Pa.

A. S. CLARK, Peekskill, N. Y. "Out of print" Books and Pamphlets. Magazines, both common and scarce.

AMERICAN FAMILY HISTORY.—The advertisers can be of special value to American correspondents seeking Genealogical or Topographical information in England. Please say special wants and we will quote what we can do for you. MEEHAN, Bath, Eng.

BOOKS or pamphlets on Angling, Fishing, Fishes,
Fish Culture. Single items or dealers' sale catalogues offering above. Failure to reply to any offer signifies that Mr. Fearing already possesses the items offered.
Cash by return on receipt of orders. MR. DANIEL
B. FEARING, Newport, R. I.

BOOKS FOR THE FALL SEASON

We are equipped to supply promptly and at the right prices everything the Retail Dealer needs in Books.

Our stock includes New and Standard Fiction, Holiday Booklets, Illustrated Books, Juveniles, Reprint Fiction, Seasonable Novelties in Books, Standard Sets, Miscellaneous Books, and School Books.

We make special Fall terms on Holiday stock orders.

Call on us when you come to New York.

THE BAKER & TAYLOR CO.

Wholesale Dealers in the Books of all Publishers

33-37 East 17th Street, New York

WAGNER'S HEROES

By CONSTANCE MAUD

Profusely Illustrated in Black and White and Colors. Cloth, Octavo, Artistically Stamped in Colors. Price, 50 cents.

These stories are for our young folks and not written for Wagnerites or any other learned persons.

These are just simple tales about men and women who once really lived on the earth and about whom the greatest poet-musician wrote in that wonderful music-language of his which speaks straight to the heart.

McLOUGHLIN BROTHERS, Publishers.

The Best of Its Class

Whether it is Library, Fine Art Work, Catalog, or Paper, Cloth or Leather Edition Binding, we Attain the Best Results.

And It Costs No More

Quality work, fair prices, prompt delivery.

J. F. TAPLEY CO.

Makers of Books

531-533-535 WEST 37th STREET

3

3

NEW YORK

Accuracy. Promptness. Reliability.

KAY PRINTING HOUSE,

66-68 CENTRE STREET,

Telephone 1553 Worth

NEW YORK.

Estimates Promptly Furnished.

Printers to THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY

PRINTING

of all kinds, plain and colored, also engraving and embossing, in any quantity, promptly attended to at the closest possible prices. We can refer to the largest banks, the largest manufacturing concerns, publishers and others in the United States. We shall take pleasure in having you call, or if it suits your convenience, to call on you. Drop us a line.

ANDREW H. KELLOGG

409 Pearl St. (Phone 3640 John,) New York

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

Directory of Publishing Adjuncts

Rates: Two Lines, $8; Three Lines, $12; Four Lines, $15 per year

COMPOSITION AND PRESSWORK.

Robert Drummond, 531 West 37th St., New York. Scientific Textbook work—from manuscript to bound book—and plate alterations a specialty.

Wm. F. Fell Co., 1220-1224 Sansom St., Phila. Machine Composition, Electrotyping and Book Press work.

S. J. Parkhill & Co., 218-226 Franklin St., Boston. Large facilities for Book Composition, Electrotyping and Presswork.

The Rockwell & Churchill Press, 291-293 Congress St., Boston. Book Composition, Electro., and Presswork. High grade work; prompt service.

Stanhope Press, F. H. Gilson Company, 54-60 Stanhope St., Boston. Music Typography, music book printing and binding.

C. H. Simonds & Co., 297 Congress St., Boston. Book Composition and Electro., Linotype, Monotype, hand. Single and Perfecting Presswork.

The Trow Press, 201-213 E. 12th St., New York. 21 Linotypes, Lanstons, 80 Presses, Electrotyping.

The Winthrop Press, 419 Lafayette Street, New York. Linotype, Monotype and Hand Composition. Cylinder, Perfecting, Rotary, Color and Job Presswork. Night and Day. Coin cards and envelopes.

BOOK MANUFACTURING

Braunworth & Co., 16 Nassau St., Brooklyn, N. Y. Near Brooklyn Bridge. Printers and Binders. Large and complete facilities for Book making. Write for representative to call. Consultation invited.

Britton Printing Company, Cleveland, Ohio. Printing Art says: "Britton's samples represent the most remarkable demonstration that has ever come to us in any single line of printing." The American Printer says: "Your samples are the finest collection of printed booklets we have ever received."

Burr Printing House, Frankfort and Jacob Sts., New York. Complete facilities for composition, electrotyping, presswork and binding.

W. B. Conkey Company, Book Manufacturers for Publishers and Authors; composition; electrotyping; presswork; bookbinding. We have more machinery and larger equipment than any other plant in America. First class work; prompt service; splendid shipping facilities; right prices. Works, Hammond, Indiana; Chicago Office, 204 Dearborn Street.

The De Vinne Press, 395 Lafayette St., New York. Fine Book Work, Illustrated and Plain. Privately Printed and Limited Editions. Magazines and Catalogues of All Descriptions. Electrotyping, Cloth and Pamphlet Binding.

William G. Hewitt, 24-26 Vandewater St., New York City. Manufacturer of books, catalogs and magazines at the best competitive prices. Book composition and electrotyping a specialty.

Write to L. H. Jenkins, Richmond, Va., for the manufacture of books, printing or binding. Large plant devoted exclusively to edition work. First class service. Right prices.

The Lakeside Press, R.R. Donnelley & Sons Co., Plymouth Ct., Chicago. Fine edition books and periodicals produced complete—designing, engraving, composition, electrotyping, printing, and binding. Over 200 compositors; Linotypes and Lanstons; 63 presses; 17,000 cubic feet of underground storage vaults for plates. Absolutely fire-proof plant

J. B. Lyon Company, Albany. Law and subscription book makers. General printers. Twenty-five composing machines, forty presses. Complete electrotype and stereotype foundries and binderies.

BOOK MANUFACTURING.—Continued.

The Manhattan Press, 474-6-8 West Broadway, New York. Book printers and cloth and leather book binders. Special facilities for large editions.

The Norwood Press, Norwood, Mass. J. S. Cushing Co., Composition and Electro. BERWICK & SMITH Co., Presswork E. FLEMING & Co., Binding

The Plimpton Press, Norwood, Mass. New York Office, 70 Fifth Ave. Composition, Presswork, Cloth and Leather Bindings. Special facilities for composition in foreign languages.

J. F. Tapley Co., 531-535 West 37th St., New York. Complete manufacture of books intelligently handled.

The Trow Press, 201-213 E. 12th St., New York. Complete Book, Job and Magazine Office, fine color work, catalogues, etc., modern machinery, large facilities.

The Werner Company, Akron, Ohio. The Largest Book Factory On The American Continent. Comprising All Graphic Arts & Trades.

CLOTH AND LEATHER BINDERS

Ephraim Adams & Co., 287-293 Congress St., Boston. Established 70 years. Large facilities for Edition cloth and leather binding. Prompt deliveries. Inquiries solicited.

The American Book Bindery, Office, 265 Cherry St., New York. Editions bound in cloth and leather. Capacity, 18,000 books daily. Prompt and reliable.

Braunworth & Co., 16 Nassau St., Brooklyn, N. Y. Near Brooklyn Bridge. Cloth and Leather Binding in all branches. Careful attention to detail. Special methods for promptly handling large editions. Write and our representative will call.

The Butler Ward Company, 497 Pearl St., near Centre St., New York. Cloth and leather edition work.

Thomas Y. Crowell & Co., 426-428 West Broadway New York. Edition binding of all kinds.

Wm. Koch & Sons, 61-65 N. J. R. Ave., Newark, N. J. (Established 1865.) Extra Cloth and all styles of Leather Bindings. Daily deliveries in New York.

Eugene C. Lewis Company, 214-218 William St., New York. Edition, catalogue, also high-class pamphlet binding.

George McKibbin & Son, 78-80 Walker Street (near Broadway), New York. FLEXIBLE Leather and Cloth BOOKBINDING a Specialty.

The Manhattan Press, 474-6-8 West Broadway, New York. Book printers and cloth and leather book binders. Special facilities for large editions.

National Bindery Inc., 6-10 Wooster St., New York. Leather, Cloth and Pamphlet Work. Prompt Del.

Raskin Brothers, 142-152 Worth Street, New York. Leather and Cloth Binding.

J. F. Tapley Co., 531 West 37th St., New York. Special Department for Art Binding.

The Trow Press, 201-213 E. 12th St., N. Y. Large modern edition binderies for leather, cloth, pamphlet work.

H. Wolff, 92-98 Centre Street, New York. Bindery completely equipped for edition work in cloth, half leather, and full leather. Capacity, 100,000 books per week.

EXTRA BINDING FOR THE TRADE

Henry Blackwell, 10th Street and University Place, New York. Good bookbinding only, in all varieties of leather.

Ernst Hertzberg & Sons, 110 East Randolph St., Chicago. Hand-made books. Best equipped bindery in country. Newest designs, restoring, inlaying, etc. Prices reasonable. Gold medal, St. Louis, 1904.

James Macdonald, 132 West 27th St., New York. Established 1880. Leather art binding for sets or single vols. Inlaying, mending, cleaning a specialty.

Directory of Publishing Adjuncts.—Continued

BINDING FOR THE TRADE.—Continued.

The Trow Press, 201-213 E. 12th St., N. Y. Extra binding, Vellum, Crushed Levant, Morocco, Calf, etc. Unique designs. Restoring, inlaying.

BOOKBINDERS' CLOTHS

The Holliston Mills, of Norwood, Mass., manufacture the finest line of plain and artistic cloth in the market. New York office, No. 67 Fifth Avenue. Sample books furnished.

DIE CUTTERS AND ENGRAVERS

Becker Bros., 26 East 13th St., New York. Fully equipped for artistic designing and die cutting. Established 1880.

Chas. Wagenfohr, Designer, Engraver, Diesinker. 140 West Broadway, New York. High grade work.

HALF-TONE AND OTHER PLATES

Gatchel & Manning (Estab. 1889), Philadelphia. Designers, Illustrators and Engravers of Plates for printing in one or more colors on a type printing press.

The Hagopian Photo-Engraving Co., 39 East 20th St., New York. Pioneers in the development of photo-engraved plates.

COLOR PROCESS PLATES

Trichromatic Engraving Co., 78 Reade St., New York. Phone. 1304 Worth.

R. R. Donnelley & Sons Co., Plymouth Court, Chicago. Color engravings by all processes. Largest daylight photograph gallery in the world.

COLOR PRINTERS

Zeese-Wilkinson Co., 213-217 E. 24th St., N. Y. Known for Prompt and Satisfactory service.

PUBLISHERS' BROKERS

Newold Publishing Co., 156 Fifth Ave., N. Y. Publishers' Reminders, Plates and Premiums.

Orsamus Turner Harris, 12 W. 32d St., N. Y. Publishers' Reminders, Plates and Premiums.

INDEXING

C. H. Denison's Time-saving Index, 152 E. 23rd St., N. Y. Saves money by saving time.

TRADE LISTS, FAC-SIMILES, ETC.

The Trow Directories, 87-91 Third Avenue, N. Y. Lists of all businesses and professions, U. S., Canada. Fac-simile letters, folding, addressing and mailing.

REPRODUCTIONS

The Columbia Planograph Company, Washington, D. C. Reproduces maps, books, tabular matter, and anything printed or written in black ink. Drawings for Foreign Patents and Court Records a specialty.

Classified Business Opportunities

A Directory of Profitable Adjuncts to Bookselling

Rates: One Line, $5; Two Lines, $8; Three Lines, $12; Four Lines, $15 per year.

Art Publishers.

THE CANTERBURY CO., 328 Wabash Ave., Chicago. Hand-Lettered Books, Catchword Postcards, Hand-Decorated Cards and Blotters. Calendars, Valentines, etc., Little Gifts of Quality. Catalogue Free.

HILLS & HAFELY CO., 27 East 22d St., New York. Birthday, Christmas, Condolence, Easter and Wedding Congratulation Cards; Calendars, Booklets, Wall Mottoes, etc.

WOODBURY E. HUNT CO., Concord, N. H. Pictures, Art Calendars, Valentines, Easter Cards and Mottoes.

Books in Foreign Languages.

WILLIAM R. JENKINS CO., 851 and 853 Sixth Ave., cor. 48th St., New York. French and other foreign languages.

LEMCKE & BUECHNER, 32 West 27th Street, New York. (All foreign books and Periodicals.)

ISAAC PITMAN & SONS, 31 Union Sq., N. Y.

SCHOENHOF BOOK CO., Boston, Mass. Foreign Books. Tauchnitz British Authors.

G. E. STECHERT & CO., 129 West 20th St., New York. Importers of Books and Periodicals.

E. STEIGER & CO., N. Y., carry the largest stock of German publications in all departments. Books for learning 250 languages. Prompt importation of books and periodicals from all countries.

FRANCESCO TOCCI, 520 Broadway, N. Y. Italian books of every description. Catalogue on application.

Diaries.

B. W. HUEBSCH, 225 Fifth Ave., N. Y. Annual and Perpetual Year Books. A popular diary.

Kindergarten and School Supplies.

E. STEIGER & CO., N. Y., manufacture the largest line of Kindergarten Supplies and Constructive Material for Manual Training. Catalogs gratis.

Masonic Books and Goods.

MACOY PUBLISHING AND MASONIC SUPPLY CO., 45, 47, 49 John St., New York.

Maps, Globes, and Atlases.

C. S. HAMMOND & CO., 142 Fulton St., New York. Atlases, School Maps, Road Maps, Globes.

Shorthand and Typewriting Books.

BURNZ' FONIC SHORTHAND; Readable, Brief $1.00. 94 E. 10th St., New York.

PHONOGRAPHIC INSTITUTE CO., Cincinnati, O. Publishers of the Benn Pitman System.

ISAAC PITMAN & SONS, 31 Union Sq., N. Y.

Stationery Novelties.

WILLIAM J. BURKHARDT, 165 Danforth Ave., Jersey City. Unique Holiday Novelties, Die Stamped Christmas Cards, Post Cards, Calendars. Penwipers

Book Trade and Library Helps

ISSUED FROM

THE OFFICE OF THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY

The Publishers' Weekly

Recognized as the representative of the publishing and bookselling interests in the United States. Contains full weekly record of American publications, with monthly indexes, cumulated quarterly, half yearly and annually, news of interest concerning the book trade, lists of "Books Wanted," (an advertising feature which each subscriber may use without charge to the extent of 100 lines per year,) etc., etc. Subscription, $4.00 a year; to foreign countries, $5.00 a year.

The Annual American Catalog, 1908

In two parts: A short-title complete index to all the book publications of the year and a full-title index, with brief annotations of the leading books of 1908. 8vo, cloth, $3.00.

The American Catalog, 1905-1907

Vol. I containing in one alphabet an index to all books published during 1905-06-07; under author, title, subject and series entries. 8vo, half morocco, $7.50.

Vol. II containing the full-title Weekly Record material of The Publishers' Weekly for the same years, in a separate alphabet for each year. 8vo, half morocco, $6.00.

The American Catalog, 1900-1905

Vol. I contains a five-year cumulation, Jan. 1, 1900-Jan. 1, 1905, giving in one alphabet, by author, title and subject, information of the books issued during the years covered by this period. 8vo, half morocco, $7.50.

Vol. II (Supplementary volume) gives the full-title entries with annotations printed in the Weekly Record of The Publishers' Weekly, cumulated into an alphabet for each year, i.e., into five alphabets, 1900, 01, 02, 03, 04. This is planned to answer the demand of such libraries, bookdealers, and others as want the full material of The Publishers' Weekly bibliographical system in available shape. 8vo, half morocco, $7.50. The set of two, $15.

Of the previous series of THE AMERICAN CATALOGUE, quarto size, the earlier volumes are out of print. We have remaining a few copies of the volumes 1890-95 and 1895-1900, bound in half morocco, $15.00 each.

The Publishers' Trade List Annual

Contains the latest catalogues of upward of 200 American publishers, contributed by themselves and arranged alphabetically by the firm-names, with smaller lists, fully indexed, in the front of the volume, indispensable to every one who has any interest in the sale or purchase of books. Large 8vo, cloth, $2.00.

Index to the Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1902, out of print.

The Supplementary Index, 1903-1904, 500 pages, 8vo, cloth, with thumb index, $3.00. The alphabet in this volume is supplementary to the original Index of 1902.

The Library Journal

Chiefly devoted to library economy and bibliography. Established in 1876. Published monthly. Subscription $4.00 a year, postpaid; single numbers, 35 cents. Price to Europe or other countries in the Union, 16s, a year; single numbers, 1 s. d.

The Annual Library Index

Including Periodicals, American and English Essays, Book-Chapters, etc., Bibliographies, Necrology, Index to Dates of Principal Events, and a Directory of Libraries. Edited, with the co-operation of members of the American Library Association, by W. I. FLETCHER. (Published annually.) The volume covering 1908, $5.00; all prior volumes, $3.50 each.

The American Educational List

Contains a price-list of the text-books in use in the United States, arranged alphabetically by author's or editor's name, and a detailed subject-index, referring from each specific subject to authors of books on that subject. (Published annually.) 8vo, leatherette, 50 cents.

English Catalogue of Books (Annual)

Containing a complete list of all the books published in Great Britain and Ireland in the calendar year, with index to subjects. 8vo, cloth, $1.50.

Whitaker's Reference Catalogue of Current Literature, 1910

3 vols. (one of which is an Index to the catalogues), bound in half leather, $5. Ready in April, 1910.

Directory of Publishers

Contains names and addresses of 3789 firms and individuals who issued books in the U. S. from Jan. 1, 1905, to Dec. 31, 1907. (Reprinted from The American Catalog.) 8vo, leatherette, red edges, $1.00.

The Profession of Bookselling

A handbook of practical hints for the apprentice and bookseller. By A. GROWELL, managing-editor of The Publishers' Weekly, author of "A Bookseller's Library," "Three Centuries of English-Booktrade Bibliography," etc. Parts 1 and 2. 8vo, boards, each $2.00. (Concluding part in preparation.)

Publications of Societies

A provisional list of the publications of American scientific, literary and other societies, from their organization. Compiled under the editorial direction of R. R. BOWKER. Schedules yearly 1000 societies issuing publications, and gives title-entries of all their publications, as far as data could be obtained from the societies and from libraries. 8vo, paper, $2.50.

State Publications

A provisional list of the official publications of the several States of the United States from their organization. Compiled under the editorial direction of R. R. BOWKER. Part 1: New England States. Part 2: North Central States. Part 3: Western States and Territories. Part 4: Southern States. The four parts bound in one vol., half morocco, $12.00; the four parts, each in paper cover, $10.00 for the set. (Not sold separately.)

Office of THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY

298 Broadway

NEW YORK